THE word "Theology" means the Science of God. This science has God not only for its subject, but also for its source and its object; hence the Divine character of Theology cannot better be described than by the old formula: "Theology teaches about God, is taught by God, and leads to God." Theology may be taken objectively as doctrine, or subjectively as knowledge. But it is not every knowledge of Divine doctrine, especially not the mere apprehension of it, that is called Theology. The term is restricted to scientific knowledge; and consequently Theology, in its technical sense, is the scientific exposition of the doctrine concerning God and things Divine. Aeterna Press people as they serve, love, and minister to one another. Yet some of the gifts that God offers to his people aren't commonly seen in many churches today. Gifts of prophecy, healing, tongues, and other supernatural gifts of God seem to be absent, and many Christians are unsure how to cultivate an atmosphere where God's Spirit can work while remaining committed to the foundational truth of God's Word. How can Christians pursue and implement the miraculous gifts of the Spirit without falling into fanatical excess and splitting the church in the process? In Practicing the Power, pastor and author Sam Storms offers practical steps to understanding and exercising spiritual gifts in a way that remains grounded in the word and centered in the gospel. With examples drawn from his forty years of ministry as a pastor and teachers, Storms offers a guidebook that can help pastors, elders, and church members understand what changes are needed to see God move in supernatural power and to guard against excess and abuse of the spiritual gifts. If you long to see God's Spirit move in your church and life, and aren't sure why that isn't happening or where to begin, this book is for you. Throw away the template for Christmas books and come walk on the kingdom side in an examination of America's most loved holiday. Critical thinking is a must while looking through this lens of history and Scripture. You will be intrigued and enlightened. What's wrong with Christmas? Plenty. This book shines light on various troubling issues involved in celebrating a Christian Christmas. How to clean it up? This will be determined by you and your family. Since we have an abundance of traditions, memories, and reasons to stay just the way we are, Santa-tizing will primarily explore the opposite. Like an archeologist, she has been led to sift through the sands of time to discover various mysteries in relation to some divine messages she received during three epiphanous appearances. The purpose for this publication is to expose error that subtly enter churches to promulgate misinformation morphing it into doctrine; thereby rendering that part of the body of Christ ineffective. The present-day church seem to be sludged with religious practices of ritualistic services, peripheral sermons omitting Jesus as the foundation for such, entertainment and the compulsion for tithes and offerings. Some preach condemnatory messages genuinely believing that it is required to shape its members, in spite of study which shows that God has made us sons and kings unto Himself through His Grace Jesus Christ. It potentially intimidates anyone that may question this church model. God's Word declares that it is the love of money that is the root of all evil, yet some churches seem to be in sincere denial; supposedly exempting them: doctrine of Balaam. Others diminish the economic comfort of ordinary God-fearing people who revere their leadership, trusting the arm of flesh in ignorance and obedience: "For as many as are of the works of the law are under a curse." There is a significant difference between life before the cross of Jesus and life after the cross of Jesus. This kind of business practice is under the charge of the Holy Spirit's intervention to dismantle such fleecing and to align with God's Word for true prosperity to manifest for His children in these last days. God does not bless anyone at the expense of the assembly: God cannot lack. To be impartial, some assemblies sincerely believe that what was taught in seminary or the genesis of their church (religion) which may have originated from a room beneath a house somewhere sanctions its genuinity. Moreover faith misdirected yields error. Theological institutions may play a very basic role in the introduction for those chasing destiny; in pursuit of the Kingdom of God, but there is a significant void that is presently being refilled hopefully in assemblies globally i.e. the teaching of the Kingdom of God, the Grace of God, the Cross and the Blood. However, the spirit of error errand is to instill fear projecting the thought, that with the Word of Grace the church would fragment and the financial structure would dwindle, and possibly diminish beyond what the presbytery expect for income versus expenditure in any given year. This course consists of eleven lessons designed to equip and empower you for success spiritually and naturally. The course can be used for group or self-paced individualized instruction.

Jesus stated that with faith in Him we would accomplish greater things than He. Jesus saved the lost, healed the sick, ministered to the multitudes, and raised the dead. Accordingly, the modern church should be doing much more. So what's the problem? Why do we fall short of our Savior's standard? Quite bluntly, Christianity has caught a chronic case of apathy! In The Cure for Common Christianity, using a command of theology and a unique, witty writing style, Pastor Tommy Galloway outlines the formula to alleviate this Church crisis. The problems are complex and the symptoms are multi-faceted; the cure is simple—a full-fledged return to the basics of Christianity. The world is disillusioned by the corruption and complacency plaguing our houses of worship. Christians cannot waste time. A spiritually sick world is waiting for a healthy Church to offer hope. They are waiting for - The Cure for Common Christianity. Pastor Tommy Galloway began his ministry at age sixteen. Upon completion of high school in Calhoun City, Mississippi, he attended Jackson College of Ministries and received a degree in Theology. He served as Youth Pastor in Longview, Texas, before beginning evangelistic work throughout the United States. In 1984, he married Candace Greene. They continued evangelistic work until 1988, when they were elected pastors of Powell's Grove Pentecostal Church in Jayess, Mississippi. After pastoring there for six years, they moved to Tupelo, Mississippi, in 1994, to begin evangelistic work again. In 1996, they founded Word of Life Church where they still serve as Senior Pastors. Pastor Tommy's vision is, "Lead Locally, Reach Regionally, and Grow Globally." Although pastoring the phenomenal people of Word of Life Church is his first calling, he still ministers at evangelistic crusades throughout America and other countries. Tommy and Candi have three children, Landon, Kristian, and Alexis.
