Praised for its fresh and informed discussion of language instruction and language acquisition, the first edition of Making Communicative Language Teaching Happen was recognized by the Modern Language Association as one of the twenty most influential methods textbooks. The authors are both internationally recognized scholars in the field of second language acquisition research and have also written numerous successful language textbooks. The guiding principle of Making Communicative Language Teaching Happen is the premise that communication is the expression, interpretation, and negotiation of meaning, and not simply oral expression. Following that framework, Making Communicative Language Teaching Happen helps instructors develop communicative classroom environments that blend listening, speaking, reading, and writing.

While generally listed in international language atlases, contested languages usually fall through the cracks of research: excluded from the literature on minority languages and treated as mere ensembles of geographically defined varieties by traditional dialectology. This volume investigates the nature of contested languages, the role language ideologies play in the perception of these languages, the contribution of academic discourse to the formation and perpetuation of language contestedness, and the damage contestedness causes to linguistic communities and ultimately to linguistic diversity. Various situations and degrees of language contestedness are presented and analysed, along with theoretical considerations, exploring potential roads to recognition and issues in language planning that arise from language contestedness. Addressing the “language vs dialect” question head on, the volume opens up new perspectives that are relevant to all students and researchers interested in the maintenance of linguistic diversity.

Second Language Learning and Language Teaching provides an introduction to the application of second language acquisition research to language teaching. Assuming no previous background in second language acquisition or language teaching methods, this text starts by introducing readers to the basic issues of second language acquisition research. It then examines how people learn particular aspects of the second language, such as grammar, vocabulary, pronunciation and the writing system, and at the strategies they adopt in their learning and the differences between individuals. Final chapters look at second language learning in a broader context – the goals of language teaching and how teaching methods relate to SLA research. This newly updated fifth edition builds on the comprehensive scope of earlier editions while also addressing more recent developments in the field, particularly multilingual approaches to language teaching.

LEARN ROMANIAN THROUGH CONVERSATION This book is in Romanian. It is a B1/B2-level course in Romanian for foreign students. The main focus is on conversation. Cele optsprezece teme prezente în această carte doresc să iasă din tiparul manualelor dedicate învățării limbii române de către străini. Sunt abordate teme noi, de actualitate - și deci prezente în viața obișnuită -, de fiecare zi. Unele dintre aceste teme sunt serioase, altele sunt amuzante, dar toate sunt interesante. Metoda folosită în această carte este cea comunicativă. Toate temele încep cu câteva întrebări pregătitoare, care conduc cursantul către tema discutată. Întrebările sunt urmate de citirea unui text în cadrul căruia este introdus vocabularul tematic, totul culminând cu o serie de exerciții care ajută într-un prim pas la însușirea cunoștințelor și apoi la punerea în practică a acestora. Prin jocurile de rol sunt prezentate diferite situații de care fie ne-am izbit, fie am auzit de la prietenii noștri, iar cursanții au posibilitatea să folosească termenii dobândiți în pași anteriori. Discuțiile libere dezvoltă capacitățile cursanților de a discuta în limba română, accentul fiind pus pe conversație. Exercițiile de vocabular vin să susțină această abilitate de a dezbate, prin asimilarea de noi termeni și expresii, contribuind astfel la dezvoltarea vocabularului specific nivelului B1/B2, conform Cadrului European de Referință.
