A thrilling and dangerous adventure through Arunachal Pradesh, one of the world's least explored places. 'A fabulously thrilling journey through a beguiling land' Joanna Lumley 'With tremendous verve and determination Antonia plunges through an extraordinary world. Thank heavens she survived to tell this vivid and thoughtful tale' Ted Simon, author of Jupiter's Travels 'A tale of delight and exuberance - and one I'd thoroughly recommend. Bolingbroke-Kent proves a great travelling companion - compassionate, spirited and with a sharp eye for human oddity' Benedict Allen, author of Edge of Blue Heaven and Into the Abyss 'A transformative journey that gripped me from the very first page' Alastair Humphreys, author of The Boy Who Biked the World and Microadventures 'Remote, mountainous and forbidding, here shamans still fly through the night, hidden valleys conceal portals to other worlds, yetis leave footprints in the snow, spirits and demons abound, and the gods are appeased by the blood of sacrificed beasts' A mountainous state clinging to the far north-eastern corner of India, Arunachal Pradesh - meaning 'land of the dawn-lit mountains' - has remained uniquely isolated. Steeped in myth and mystery, not since pith-helmeted explorers went in search of the fabled 'Falls of the Brahmaputra' has an outsider dared to traverse it. Antonia Bolingbroke-Kent sets out to chronicle this forgotten corner of Asia. Travelling some 2,000 miles she encounters shamans, lamas, hunters, opium farmers, fantastic tribal festivals and little-known stories from the Second World War. In the process, she discovers a world and a way of living that are on the cusp of changing forever. 'A beautifully written, exciting and revealing book that harks back to a golden age of travel writing' Lois Pryce, author of Revolutionary Ride

A repertory which is used by every homoeopath. Based on the original provings and information gathered till that time. Includes the art of repertorizing.

This book is based on 30 years of experience as a clinician and teacher. The subject is the most important part for a successful practice. The Materia Medica is a vast ocean and the symptoms under each remedy innumerable. As said by Dr Kent, "All who would memorise the Materia Medica must ignominiously fall". In this book author has tried to cope up with the shortcomings in grasping the Materia Medica. The salient features of this edition are: Constitutional, specific, biochemic and pathological indications; Dosage, repetition and duration of action; Relationship of remedies; Comparison with other remedies; Causes and disease complaints and characteristics; Generals and modalities.

Transcription of various seminars taught by the author in the USA. Contains 53 remedies.

Lectures on Homoeopathic Materia Medica
Repertory of the Homoeopathic Materia Medica
B. Jain Publishers

This is a compilation of lectures given by Kent in various places like Hering Medical College and Dunham Medical College. It brings into light the superb work of Kent, many new pictures of the standard, well known remedies and materia medica of some new remedies not presented before by Kent (Abrotanum, Robinia, Tabacum etc). The remedies have been discussed elaborately under the heads of general and particular features.

Dr E A Farrington's Clinical Materia Medica is over 100 years old, and what a gem it is. Though it is a very nicely written book, it is not as popular as Kent's Lectures on Materia Medica. B Jain have revamped this jewel.

Written by one of the pioneers of homeopathy J T Kent, the book offers useful guidelines to the students and practitioners of the homeopathic art on how to make a successful prescription. Starting with the correct approach to a thorough case taking, consideration of the Do's & Don'ts and how to do proper recording of symptoms has been dealt exhaustively in this work. The interrogation part has been discussed in detail as to what shall be the questions that are to be asked, what are the ways of investigating the peculiarities, how to collect the accessories and the specific modalities that must be kept in mind. A comprehensive list of questions have been compiled in a logical manner covering particulars in full detail and separate sections on male and female. A must read for all homeopaths, so as to understand classical homeopathy in it's true perspective & follow it successfully in practice.

These writings were condensed from letters, published articles, and lectures. Has a short Materia Medica with work on philosophy and application of homoeopathy.

David S. Riley's interest in the history, methodology and results of homeopathic drug provings began with his exposure to homeopathy in 1988 and his later study at the Hahnemann College of Homeopathy in Albany, California. The homeopathic drug provings published here are the result of his investigation of the research methods associated with homeopathic drug provings and contemporary research methodology. Dr. Riley has developed explicit and transparent research tools for (1) symptom selection criteria, (2) electronic data collection, and (3) blinding to reduce bias. These homeopathic drugs provings follow good clinical practice research guidelines (GCP) and incorporate the guidelines suggested by Dr. Samuel Hahnemann more than 200 years ago
