Every morning I need to look at the sea, I need to draw energy from its majesty. After I built with my own hands a rowing boat deciding to get it over, I take off. I am called by a siren that promises me a wonderful life in the depths. Without hesitation I accept, and in fact I became a man mermaid with superpowers.

Unfortunately I dreamed ...

Come vi sentireste se, cresciuti per sedici anni in una grande metropoli, la vostra famiglia di punto in bianco decidesse di trasferirsi in un'isola così piccola da non risultare nelle carte geografiche? È così che si sentiva Akane il mattino in cui fece trasloco, sistemando le sue cose nella nuova camera. Quel luogo offriva ben pochi svaghi e non avrebbe certo giovato al suo carattere chiuso e solitario. Fu quindi per Akane un'incredibile sorpresa scoprire ciò che da lì a poco le sarebbe accaduto...

"WHITE JADE spins a web of deceit and murder across the globe, against the backdrop of a deadly international power game. Former Recon Marine Nick Carter is a man with a dark history of emotional and physical scars. He works for the PROJECT, a covert counter-terrorism unit reporting to the President. Selena Connor is a beautiful, strong and skilled linguist. When her wealthy uncle is murdered by someone looking for an ancient book about the elixir of immortality, she's thrown into Nick's dangerous world. Nick is assigned to protect Selena and help her recover the missing text. It's the beginning of a life and death adventure reaching from San Francisco to Beijing, from Washington to the hidden chambers of Tibet. Someone is determined to take over China and attack America--and Nick and Selena are right in the line of fire. International intrigue, terrorist acts and the threat of nuclear war form the core of this fast-paced thriller, the first volume in a series featuring Nick, Selena and the PROJECT"--Author's web page. Neo Tokyo, California is a city built so high that none of its residents have ever seen the ground. It is a place where citizens cosmetically alter their bodies to look like Japanese anime characters. It is a place where ninja battles determine the fate of corporate business ventures. It is the home of Basu-- a 700 pound killing machine who uses his grotesque excess weight as a deadly weapon.

Rock 'n' roll, revolution, and romance are seductively woven together in this intense and moving novel from the author of Twenty Fragments of a Ravenous Youth. In her flat in north London, Iona Kirkpatrick sets to work on a new project translating a collection of letters and diaries by a Chinese musician. With each letter and journal entry, Iona becomes more and more intrigued with the unfolding story of two lovers: Jian, a punk rocker who believes there is no art without political commitment, and Mu, the young woman he loves as fiercely as his ideals. Iona cannot possibly know that Jian is mere miles away in Dover, awaiting the uncertain fate of a political exile. Mu is still in Beijing, writing letters to London and desperately trying to track Jian down. As Iona charts the course of their twenty-year relationship, from its early beginnings at Beijing University to Jian's defiant march in the Jasmine Revolution, her own empty life takes on an urgent purpose: to bring Jian and Mu together again before it's too late.

Seila Orienta wrote this description of the 4th Tarot Card according to the system of Franz Bardon. For the first time in the history of occult literature, this 4th Tarot Card of the great Hermes Trismegistos is being described and revealed. Included are unknown concentration and meditation exercises. Furthermore, there is a reference to the difference of magic and mysticism, as well as the dangers of a one-sided path. Ultimately, upon completion of the 4th Tarot Card, there will be a technique of unification with the universal God, who is the master of the sun sphere. In Quabbalah, this master is called 'Metatron'.

Would you choose to save your child if it meant someone else had to die? Victoria and Jonathan Lyons seem to have everything--a perfect marriage, a beautiful daughter, Emily, and a successful business. Until they discover Emily, aged five, has a rare and fatal illness. Medical trials show that a temporary fix would be to transplant a hormone from a living donor. However, in the trials the donors die within twenty-four hours. Victoria and Jonathan are forced to accept that their daughter is going to die. In an unfortunate twist of fate Jonathan is suddenly killed in a farming accident and Victoria turns to her sick father-in-law, Frank, for help. Then a series of events present Victoria and Frank with a situation that, although illegal, could save Emily. Will they take their one chance and should they? A Sinister and Darkly Compelling Psychological Thriller Novel, this book is intended for mature audiences and contains graphic and disturbing imagery.

This little but powerful book is written to encourage and empower Christians who are going through tough times of trial. They should know that those unpleasant situations will serve as God's instruments of lifting them to their next phase of breakthrough. Here, we will see that our attitude can determine our altitude in our walk with God. And also, that there is always a profit in every adversity.

In this book John Christy and Karl Ludvigsen have set down not only the joy of MG ownership but a comprehensive history showing how it all began. However, they haven't stopped there. A major portion of the book is devoted to maintaining and improving the more popular variants—from the TC through TD, TF, TF-1500, to the current MGA. These portions (with certain minor exceptions) were done directly from data supplied by Mr. Sydney Enever, who heads Abingdon's competition department. For those owners of the marque who are interested in continuous maintenance and improvement—and what truly shriven MG owner isn't ?—this is must reading ...”

Aspiring college athlete Aileen Nessa is finding the recruiting process beyond daunting. Being ranked #10 in the world for the 100m hurdles at the age of eighteen is not a fluke, even though she believes that one race, where everything clinked magically together, might be. American universities don't seem to think so. Letters are pouring in from all over the country. As she faces the challenge of differentiating between a college's genuine commitment to her or just empty promises from talent-seeking coaches, Aileen heads to Gatica State University, a Division One school, on a recruiting trip. The university's athletic program boasts one of the top sprint coaches in the country. The beautiful old buildings on campus and Ivy League smarts seems so above her little Ohio town upbringing. All Aileen needs to convince her to sign her letter of intent is a recruiting trip that takes her breath away. Tyrone Jensen is the school's NCAA champion in the hurdles and Jim Thorpe recipient for top defensive back in football. His incredible ocean blue eyes and confident smile make Aileen stutter and forget why she is visiting GSU. His offer to take her under his wing, should she choose to come to Gatica, is a tempting proposition that has her wondering if she might be making a deal with an angel or the devil himself. * This is NOT erotica* It is a new adult & college sport romance. For mature readers only. There are sexual situations, but no graphic sex. Natalia, a successful foreign correspondent, travels to Madrid to spend Christmas with her husband, determined to surprise him with her early arrival. However, the surprise is all for her when she gets there and finds him in bed with another woman. Horrified, Natalia runs out, with Miguel hot on her heels, and sets out on an epic Christmas Eve journey on which she comes across Jacob, a tramp and the only person who shows a little humanity and concern for her. Accompanied by Jacob, Natalia embarks on an adventure on the streets of Madrid, including an act of vandalism on “Xmas Kingdom” and a relaxing café con leche with the tramps in Plaza Mayor. During their time together, Natalia starts to discover the man behind the tramp and wonder if she would be capable of falling in love with him...

The 2013 annual conference of the Italian Society of Agricultural Economics (SIDEA) has been held in the attractive scenario of the city of Lecce under the organization of three different Universities of the Apulia Region (Università degli Studi di Bari, Università degli Studi di Foggia and Università del Salento). The scientific theme of the 50th SIDEA Conference has been "Sustainability of the agri-food system: Strategies and Performances" (Sostenibilità del Sistema Agroalimentare: strategie e performance). With such a topic, the SIDEA intended to cope with the challenges coming from a growing demand of food in a world where critical natural resources such as water, energy and land are becoming increasingly scarce and climate change is posing credible threats. The agri-food system and the broader bio-based economy are, in fact, human activities where the classic dimensions of sustainability (ecological, economic and social) are gaining a striking weight often showing evidence of frictions. Despite a significant growth in food production over the past century, today one of the most important challenges facing agro-food system is how to feed a growing population. 100% chance of failure, with hope in the forecast The year is 2020, and the world is on the brink of economic collapse. Can a group of "whiz kids" led by an absent-minded professor and a 24 year old girl save us? A "shock and awe" metafiction thriller The crash of the stock market has created a rippling effect of disastrous proportions. Banks have failed, and people are rioting in the streets of the cities, which are on fire. Rolling blackouts have given way to entire system failures. University of Chicago Economics Professor Harry Mason, advisor to U.S. presidents and the Treasury Department, has gathered his dream team of "whiz kids," the brightest and the best graduate students in Economics, for a special laboratory class. Their mission: to save the world. But is it too late? What others are saying Fiction author Kenneth Eade and non-fiction author Gordon L. Eade team up to give you a meta-fiction thriller designed to show how to survive the next crash. "Is he my destiny or is he my doom? There are some prisons which have no bars. Amkaya's dungeon is loneliness, because her proximity is fatal. A half-blood vampire, she cannot control the beast inside and long since gave up hope of a love affair - until she meets Noah, a Nephilim, whose embrace is also fatal. They cannot escape their extraordinary attraction to one another; they quickly and unexpectedly grow close - but is it a fateful encounter or fatal recklessness?

Autumn, 1888. While the citizens of fog-shrouded London are horrified by Jack the Ripper's murder spree, another, less publicized killer is at large. Each murder takes place right after the Ripper killings, on board the carriages of the London Metropolitan Railway. Inspector Albert Norris is charged with bringing the killer to justice, but clues are few and the killer's motive unclear. As authorities try to maintain confidence in the railway system's safety, Norris can count on little help from above. Can he solve the inexplicable series of murders before the killer strikes again?

This sometimes humorous, sometimes passionate, sometimes sobering romance anthology features a mix of short stories and poems all of which tell a tale of lost love. And as every character discovers, love hurts. Are roses worth all those prickly thorns? A man and his wife fight an escalating battle over bags of carrots in Who Says You Can't Turn a Man into a Bunny? A sot wrestles with his one true love-a wine bottle-in Wretched Wooziness. Three generations of women mourn the loss of a father, husband, and son: the only one who could defuse their roiling emotional powder keg in Cities in the Sand. A besotted youth clutches the first blush and sharp thorns of passion, missing his true love's embrace in Rose Petals. A fading photograph stirs the memory of an old fishing trip and the one that got away in Cruel Barbs. A young woman jumps from the Salve Bridge after receiving a call on her mobile phone. Although the case is initially closed as a suicide, all of the alarm bells start ringing for the young Ertzaintza medical examiner, Natalia Egaña, when new deaths begin tying in with this first mystery. What is causing apparently normal and happy young women to run towards their death with a smile on their lips? A new adventure for the characters from Charon's Net, Induced Suicides is as exciting and frenetic as its predecessor. Do you dare to accompany them in a new case?

In the 22nd and 23rd centuries, the politics and cultures everywhere on the planet underwent Earth-shaking changes, and the once-powerful United States of America was no exception. With a new Constitution and a new government, the former U.S.A. became the American Peoples Republic. This novel follows the lives of some A.P.R. residents as the nation continues to painfully evolve from its predominantly 'white' European roots.

'EVIL UNDER THE GREEK SUN' If this summer you are thinking of travelling to the majestic, sun kissed Greek Islands, think again. A sadistic killer is on the loose. THE OLYMPUS KILLER... Over the picturesque Greek Islands, bodies are piling up fast. Bodies tortured, mutilated and strangely connected to ancient Greek mythology. Hellenic Police Captain COSTA PAPACOSTA is called in to assist young, top of her year, foul mouth, food loving Cretan, Lieutenant IOLI CARA in solving their most complex case yet, while facing his own demons after the tragic loss of his daughter. The OLYMPUS KILLER, as the tabloids refer to him by, is a cunning, sadistic murderer with a haunting past. A past revealed to us through his mother's story set in Dayton, USA. Will the two officers catch the murderer in time or will the Olympus Killer have his revenge? A model with arms brutally chopped off... Twins decapitated and their heads used to form a sun and a moon... Papacosta and Cara are always one step behind the killer all the way to the shocking end! #1 BESTSELLER (THRILLERS) #1 BESTSELLER (CRIME) #1 BESTSELLER (International Mystery And Crime) BOOK OF THE MONTH (May 2014) -

A skeleton and a missing woman. A doomed romance. A mystery spanning two generations. Liverpool, 1961. A group of young men come together seeking fame and fortune, as the fledgling sounds of the Swinging Sixties take root in the city. Soon, Liverpool becomes synonymous with the music that shapes a generation. Liverpool, 1999. Skeletal remains found in the docklands lead Detective Inspector Andy Ross and Sergeant Izzie Drake into a journey through time, as the investigation takes them back to early days of the Mersey Beat. Whose bones laid beneath the mud of the River Mersey for over thirty years, and what links them to a young woman, missing for the entire time?

How do you catch a man who is never the same man twice? That is the question posed in The Ninth Orphan, a top-rated international thriller novel and the first book in The Orphan Trilogy. An orphan grows up to become an assassin for a highly secretive organization. When he tries to break free and live a normal life, he is hunted by his mentor and father figure, and by a female orphan he spent his childhood with. On the run, the mysterious man's life becomes entwined with his beautiful French-African hostage and a shocking past riddled with the darkest of conspiracies is revealed. But can the ninth-born orphan ever get off the grid? To find out you'll need to go on a tumultuous journey around the globe to such far-flung locations as China, France, the Philippines, Andorra, America, England, Germany and French Polynesia. The frenetic cat-and-mouse chase moves from airports to train stations and hidden torture prisons, taking the reader on a shocking, nail-biting ride into the world's closet of skeletons that goes beyond conspiracy theories to painful reality. Fast-paced, totally fresh and original, filled with deep and complex characters, The Ninth Orphan is a controversial, high-octane thriller with an edge. Merging fact with fiction, it illuminates shadow organizations rumored to actually exist in our world. The novel explores a plethora of conspiracies involving real organizations like the CIA, MI6, and the UN, and public figures such as President Obama as well as the Clinton, Marcos and Bush families. Tackling genetic selection, mind control and secret societies, The Ninth Orphan exposes a global agenda designed to keep the power in the hands of a select few. The novel's antagonists are members of a shadow government acting above and beyond the likes of the White House, the FBI, the Pentagon and the NSA. Could something like this ever take place? Or, is it already taking place right now? This unique and unpredictable thriller also has a poignant, romantic sub-plot. The story contains the kind of intimate character portraits usually associated with psychological novels. Buckle up for a wild trip full of death-defying action, cloak and dagger intrigue, unexpected role reversals and surprise endings. Written by father-and-son writing team Lance & James Morcan (authors of The Orphan Factory, The Orphan Uprising and Fiji: A Novel), The Ninth Orphan is Book #1 in The Orphan Trilogy. A feature film adaptation of The Ninth Orphan is also currently being developed.

Dangerous Obsessions: Tight, taut and shocking, these stories all have warped love as the source of violence. Belgian/Flemish author, Bob Van Laerhoven, winner of the USA Best Book Award 2014 in the category "Mystery/Suspense" and the Hercule Poirot Prize with his controversial novel, Baudelaire's Revenge, connects the fate of individuals with profound social changes. Van Laerhoven has been a travel writer in conflict-zones from 1990 until 2003 and echos of his experiences trickle through these confronting and thrilling tales, set in civil war-torn Algeria in the fifties, in a gypsy populated Polish concentration-camp during WWII, in a Peruvian border-town where stealing is a deadly art, in Liberia during the civil war in the nineties, and in Belgian Congo during the bloody uproar in the sixties. Omnia vincit amor—Love conquers all—the saying goes. But not our Dangerous Obsessions.

The evolution of real education can be reflected when it is no longer considered an object of social status and becomes the elementary component for the creation of analytical individuals and is transformed into an education with a creative, intelligent character, where learning is creative, fun and the knowledge is transmitted in an affective environment. At present, pedagogy is the set of knowledge that is oriented towards education, understood as a phenomenon that intrinsically belongs to the human species, and that develops socially. Pedagogy, therefore, is an applied science with psychosocial characteristics that has education as its main study interest. In this aspect, the aforementioned discipline is so important that in all educational centers there should be a pedagogue or pedagogue who is not only in charge of supporting the work of teachers but also helps students who need it in certain areas.

Written by USA Today bestselling author Cassie Alexandra. The first book in the series, Resisting the Biker, is now FREE! Jordan Steele (The Judge) has been hired as a bodyguard for Jessica Winters, Slammer's new step-daughter. Security is usually not his thing, but he finds himself unable to refuse the offer after meeting her in person. Jessica Winters wants nothing to do with The Judge or any other biker, for that matter, especially after being raped by one of the Devil's Rangers, three years before. When she learns that her life is in imminent danger, however, she reluctantly agrees and finds herself in the care of a man who makes her tremble in
