Thank you for your interest in Narration Notebooks by Classical Charlotte Mason. Narration Notebooks provide students with a place to complete narrations and copywork for reading selections. Our Narration Notebooks have been tailored toward the needs of Charlotte Mason and Classical Education student needs. Inside each Narration Notebook you will find a space for picture narration and copywork in addition to written narration and copywork. If your student is not writing narrations yet, no problem! Simply note their narration on the lines for them as they narrate orally. Choose passage from any book of your choosing and begin. Narration Notebooks are a great way to document your students dedication and hard work. We offer three different Narration Notebooks to suit the individual needs of your students. We have manuscript paper for those still working on proper letter formation and placement. We have wide ruled Narration Notebooks, and college ruled Narration Notebooks. Helpful narration prompts are also included in each Narration Notebook! Classical Charlotte Mason saw a need to provide Classical and Charlotte Mason resources for parents and schools. At CCM we keep the lessons short and choose only the best books students and parents will love. We want every student to have a solid foundation to grow upon, even in the lower grades, without the busy work of other curriculum. These 75 tiny tear-out letters offer an easy and delightful way to express love. Folded into adorably small envelopes and sealed with the enclosed stickers, they're such a wonderful surprise when slipped into a loved one's pocket, shared with a Valentine, or bringing good cheer to a close friend.

A collection of essays written by pupils, friends and colleagues of Professor Peter Dronke, to honour him on his retirement. The essays address the question of the relationship between poetry and philosophy in the Middle Ages. Contributors include Walter Berschin, Charles Burnett, Stephen Gersh, Michael Herren, Edouard Jeuneau, David Luscombe, Paul Gerhardt Schmidt, Joe Trapp, Jill Mann, Claudio Orlandi and John Marenbon. It is an important collection for both philosophical and literary specialists; scholars, graduate students and undergraduates in Medieval Literature and in Medieval Philosophy.

There is nothing quite like the look and feel of this embellished book. The Foiled Mini Flexi is now part of our best-selling Old Leather mini flex wrap series, made to fit in shirt pockets, small purses, and back pockets. A memento accordion pouch is located in the back to keep all of those loose bits and pieces in one easy-to-access place. In fact, the "mini flexi format" is designed to curve to whatever body part you choose to keep it close to. This soft, flexible journal is always handy and ready for use.

These beautiful pages invite you to pick up your brush and grow. Enrich your art with "prompt" ideas to inspire your painting's growth; pages with no-stress exercises for techniques; inspirational artwork and quotations; and even a few recipes for nourishing your body along with your spirit! Each item in the Artisan series is designed to offer a specially crafted watercolor discovery glowing with Kristy Rice's creative touch. Also in the series: Watercolor Cards: Kristy Rice Designs.

Tool to help novelists imagine and document characters.

"Bevy knows what's what, and she is the kind of woman you want in your corner. If you don't believe me . . . buy the book." —Whoopi Goldberg "Funny, wise, well-experienced, empathetic, colorful—Bevy brings the spirit of humanity wherever she goes." —Pharrell Williams From the host of the fabulous and popular show Bevelations on SiriusXM's Radio Andy channel, Bevy Smith's irreverent and inspiring memoir about learning to live a big, authentic, and unapologetic life—and how you can, too Bevy Smith was living what seemed like a glamorous dream as a fashion advertising executive, blazing a lucrative career for herself in the whitewashed magazine world. She jetsetted to Europe for fashion shows, dined and danced at every hot spot, and enjoyed a mighty roster of lovers. So it came as quite a shock to Bevy when one day, after arriving at her luxury hotel in Milan, she collapsed on the Frette bedsheets and sobbed. Years of rolling with the in-crowd had taken its toll. Her satisfaction with work and life had hit rock bottom. But Bevy could not be defeated, and within minutes (okay, days) she grabbed a notepad and started realizing a truer path—one built on self-reflection and, ultimately, clarity. She figured out how to redirect her life toward meaningful creativity and freedom. In her signature lively and infectious voice (there's no one like Bevy!), Bevelations candidly shares how she reclaimed her life's course and shows how we too can manifest our most bodacious dreams. From repossessing her bold childhood nature to becoming her own brand to envisioning her life's next great destination (which will feature natural hair, important charitable giving, and a midcentury house overlooking the Pacific Ocean), Bevy invites readers along on the route of her personal transformation to reveal how each of us can live our best lives with honesty, joy, and, when we're in the mood, a killer pair of shoes.

365 questions and inspirations for the writer inside all of us. Each daily entry in this stylish journal features engaging prompts designed to help writers think about their process, observe the world around them, and focus on the act of crafting thoughtful, beautiful writing.

This book is the last graphic work produced and wholly conceived by Bob Noorda. Bob Noorda was a Dutch designer and architect who naturalized as an Italian citizen. Starting in the 1960s, he came to the fore as one of the main artificers of the renewal of twentieth-century Italian graphic art. Noorda worked in the Dutch capital until 1954, when he decided to move to Italy to settle in Milan. He worked on the signage and visual features of Milan's subway system (1964) and which won him his first of four Compasso d'Oro. In 1965, along with the designer Massimo Vignelli, he set up the graphic agency Unimark International, famous for using a very modern approach to design for international clients such as IBM, Pirelli, Olivetti, la Rinascente and the New York subway system, for which they redesigned the entire communication system. Moleskine follows up the acclaimed title on John Alcorn with another release of one of the most important designers of the past century.
