Aquila ,2012-12-06 Aquila, a series planned for biennial publication, is presented to scholars with a broad interest in modern languages and literatures. Each volume contains original material contributed by specialists within this general area, with minimal limitations as to language or length of the studies, the criteria being significance of the content and clear, interesting presentation. Aquila II includes four important monographs concerning Luther, literary criticism, Dante, and a French avant-garde salon featuring Mallarmé, Verlaine, Charles Cros, Villiers de l'Isle-Adam, etc ... There are excellent articles on a French poetic form in the late Middle Ages, the concept of Encyclopedia and general education during the Renaissance, Voltaire's Candide, Gide's Faux-Monnayeurs, and hidden satire in Don Quijote. To the Administration of Boston College, we acknowledge a debt of gratitude for the generous subsidy which has given wings to Aquila, for the advancement of knowledge in modern languages and literatures.
