The Oxford Handbook of Neo-Latin Stefan Tilg, Sarah Knight, 2015 From the dawn of the early modern period around 1400 until the eighteenth century, Latin was still the European language and its influence extended as far as Asia and the Americas. At the same time, the production of Latin writing exploded thanks to book printing and new literary and cultural dynamics. Latin also entered into a complex interplay with the rising vernacular languages. This Handbook gives an accessible survey of the main genres, contexts, and regions of Neo-Latin, as we have come to call Latin writing composed in the wake of Petrarch (1304-74). Its emphasis is on the period of Neo-Latin's greatest cultural relevance, from the fifteenth to the eighteenth centuries. Its chapters, written by specialists in the field, present individual methodologies and focuses while retaining an introductory character. The Handbook will be valuable to all readers wanting to orientate themselves in the immense ocean of Neo-Latin literature and culture. It will be particularly helpful for those working on early modern languages and literatures as well as to classicists working on the culture of ancient Rome, its early modern reception and the shifting characteristics of post-classical Latin language and literature. Political, social, cultural and intellectual historians will find much relevant material in the Handbook, and it will provide a rich range of material to scholars researching the history of their respective geographical areas of interest.

An Education in Happiness Flavia Arzeni, 2013-01-29 Happiness is neither a privilege of the few, nor a fleeting state of mind: it is hidden behind a door that every person can open once they have found it, at the end of an arduous journey of self-discovery. The two Nobel Prize-winning writers Rabindranath Tagore and Hermann Hesse are arguably very different: one comes to us from the core of Indian culture, the other from the very heart of Old Europe; the former is an eternal wanderer, the latter a determined armchair traveller. Still, there are extraordinary affinities between their works, and they both understood that the path to happiness is paved with small acts and simple notions. Flavia Arzeni's book offers us an oasis of stability and calm in which we can find the answers to our fundamental concerns about life and happiness.

Dantean Dialogues Maggie Kilgour, Elena Lombardi, 2013-01-01 Dantean Dialogues is a collection of essays by some of the world's most outstanding Dante scholars., These essays enter into conversation with the main themes of the scholarship of Amilcare Iannucci (d. 2007), one of the leading researchers on Dante of his generation and arguably Canada's finest scholar of the Italian poet. The essays focus on the major themes of Iannucci's work, including the development of Dante's early poetry, Dante's relation to classical and biblical sources, and Dante's reception. The contributors cover crucial aspects of Dante's work, from the authority of the New Life to the novelty of his early poetry, to key episodes in the Comedy, to the poem's afterlife. Together, the essays show how Iannucci's reading of central cruxes in Dante's texts continues to inspire Dante studies - a testament to his continuing influence and profound intellectual legacy.

Latin Translation in the Renaissance Paul Botley, 2004-07-08 Publisher Description

Journey Into the Dark Ennio Contini, 2017 Poetry. Selected and edited by Francesca Bergadano. Translated from the Italian by Michael Palma. Bilingual Italian-English edition. The first English collection of this seminal poet, a creator of charming scenes of sea and countryside, tender celebrations of family love, anguished cries from a soul condemned, hymns of hope for the future. These are poems written in the high style, with a personal voice and accessible meaning. A fine printing with sewn spine.

Italy Revisited Mary Melfi, 2009 Drawing out her mother's childhood memories of life in southern Italy at the dawn of the twentieth century, Mary Melfi takes an unconventional approach to autobiographical writing. Italy Revisited serves as a double memoir, told in dialogue between a mother and a daughter. The conversation takes the reader to a medieval town high up in the mountains where time is told by the shadow the sun casts, where wheat and olive oil are the currency of choice (barter is in use), and where marriage is as much about property as it is about love. As they re-create that vanished world, the pair finds greater understanding of the tumultuous relationships that sometimes exist between immigrant mothers and their children.

No Part to Play Maurizio Cucchi, 2013 Poetry. Translated from the Italian by Michael Palma. NO PART TO PLAY is a bilingual selection from eight collections of verse: Il disperso / The Missing (1976), Le meraviglie dell'acqua / The Wonders of Water (1980), Glenn (1982), Donna del gioco / Mistress of the Game (1987), Poesia della fonte / Poetry of the Source (1993), L'ultimo viaggio di Glenn / Glenn's Last Journey (1999), Per un secondo o un secolo / By a Second or a Century (2003) and Vite pulvicolari / Dusty Lives (2009). Cucchi's poetry is notable for its even tone, its avoidance of stylistic excess and rhetorical extravagance... His preference is to let descriptions, and their juxtapositions, speak for themselves, without preaching or hectoring, without pointing a moral or adorning a tale. Like Eliot's The Waste Land, Cucchi's work includes such characteristics as historical references, literary allusions and quotations, and the intermingling of these elements with disturbing personal experiences. Another central point of contact is each poet's procedure through an accretion of fragments, creating a kaleidoscope of scenes and incidents and a medley of shifting voices. from the Introduction by translator Michael Palma Cucchi's poetry posed and poses the problem of the friction between autobiography and impersonality, between concealment and exposure, between lyrical writing and narrative modes, between realism and oneiric vision, between a renunciative and nihilistic inclination and a positive and ethical vocation, between, better still, a private and solitary numbness and an epical determination for ordinary life.
