It is said the wolves roam the forest, looking for maidens to join with their pack. They appear as monsters, half-man, half-beast, and claim unsuspecting women as their own. Hannah knows all the stories of the werewolves that live in the forest beyond her village. She knows they're dangerous and that she should never venture into the woods after dark. But the wolves are calling to her, and Hannah doesn't know how much longer she can resist their invitation. She's never been touched by a man – what unspeakable acts will Hannah be forced to endure if she answers the call of a pack of insatiable werewolves? Featuring first time, ménage, gang, oral, front and back door, double stuffing, autoeroticism, voyeurism, and romance. This is a short, stand-alone story of 12,000 words, describing a wolf-man encounter. No cliff-hangers, HFN ending. Except: I'm running, running from the creatures in the woods. I know now what it is that they want, what they need. I saw everything. Layla was there, my friend, spread-eagled beneath one of their hairy forms, moaning and writhing. The sounds she made! Pleasure and pain mixed together, her voice rising and falling until she let out a howl to compare to the very creatures themselves. Are they still chasing me? My heart is beating so loudly I'm deaf to all else. Why, oh why, did I follow Layla into the forest? Why didn't I run home when I had the chance? I've heard all the stories and I knew what could happen, and still I came. Curiosity is an urge that few can resist. And now I'm caught with my hand in the cookie jar, and I cannot escape. They are following! I can hear padded feet trampling the leaves on either side of me. They're close. From the corner of my eyes, I count the moving shadows. Five. Six. Seven. How many creatures are chasing? How many will have their way with me before this night is over? I suck another fiery breath of air. My lungs burn. I cannot run much further, and the safety of the village is still so far away. I must face these creatures and in doing so, face the desires that burn deep within me. If I'm honest with myself, truly honest, then I know that part of me wanted to be caught like this. Part of me – the wicked, wanton part of me - wants to know the truth about the werewolves that haunt our woods. And now I'm going to find out. So imagine her dismay when she finds herself in the clutches of a scoundrel, only to be rescued by Gabriel himself. And when Gabriel's heartless--and heart-pounding--proposal comes, it's enough to make Dru's formidable resolve crumble is a smitten husband. She's sharp-tongued, exasperating--and due to one careless moment--about to become his wife. Still, something about Drusilla has Gabriel intrigued. First there's the delicious flush of her skin every time she delivers a barb--and then the surprisingly sensual feel of her in his arms. Gabriel even finds himself challenged by her unusual philosophies. And when he discovers a clandestine rival for Dru's affection, his temperature flares even hotter. The kiss stretches on and on, neither of us wanting to end it. I open my mouth a little, and his tongue darts in, exploring. He moves closer, until his chest presses against mine. I can feel the strength of his body beneath his suit. I run a hand up his front. His abs are like steel, and his chest is hard and defined. His hands slide down my body too, cupping my ass in firm hands. He pulls back suddenly. 'I don't know your name.' 'Alicia,' I say. 'Alicia,' he whispers. I am about to ask him his name when his mouth reclaims mine, and the kiss is so passionate it drives all rational thought from my head. The alcohol fills my being, making the world soft and fuzzy, letting me give in to the base need my body so desires. 'I want you,' I whisper. 'I want you now.' 'I want you too,' he replies. He smells like the sea. His mouth continues to explore mine, as he reaches down and begins to gather up the fabric of my dress, lifting it up and over my hips.
