David Icke exposes what he says is the real story behind global events which shape the future of human existence.

MindScience documents a seminal moment in the historic dialogue between modern science and Buddhism. The Harvard Mind Science Symposium, hosted by the university's Mind/Body Medical Institute, was groundbreaking, bringing together prominent authorities in the fields of psychiatry, psychology, neuroscience, and education with Buddhism's most noted representative, the Dalai Lama. Participants included several well-known authors—Daniel Goleman (Emotional Intelligence), Herbert Benson (The Relaxation Response), and writer and research psychologist Howard Gardner among them—as well as esteemed faculty from Harvard Medical School and elsewhere. Together, they sparked a new generation's interest in the workings of perception, cognition, and the mind/body connection.

New research and evidence that the Sphinx is thousands of years older than previously thought • Contrasts what Egyptologists claim about the Sphinx with historical accounts and new research including reanalysis of seismic studies and updates to Schoch's water weathering research and Bauval's Orion Correlation Theory • Examines how the Sphinx is contemporaneous with Göbekli Tepe, aligned with the constellation Leo, and was recarved during the Old Kingdom era of Egypt • Reveals that the Sphinx was built during the actual historical Golden Age of ancient Egypt, the period known in legend as Zep Tepi No other monument in the world evokes mystery like the Great Sphinx of Giza. It has survived the harsh climate of Egypt for thousands of years and will remain long after our own civilization is gone. According to orthodox Egyptology, the Sphinx was built around 2500 BCE as a memorial to the pharaoh Khafre. Yet this "fact" has scant to no supportive evidence. When was the Sphinx really built and, most importantly, why? In this provocative collaboration from two Egyptology outsiders, Robert M. Schoch, Ph.D., and Robert Bauval combine their decades of research to show how the Sphinx is thousands of years older than the conventional Egyptological timeline and was built by a long forgotten pre-Pharaonic civilization. They examine the known history of the Sphinx, contrasting what Egyptologists claim with prominent historical accounts and new research, including updates to Schoch's geological water weathering research and reanalysis of seismic studies. Building on Bauval's Orion Correlation Theory, they investigate the archaeoastronomical alignments of the monuments of the Giza Plateau and reveal how the pyramids and Sphinx were built to align with the constellations of Orion and Leo. Analyzing the evidence for a significantly older construction phase at Giza and the restoration and recarving of the Sphinx during the Old Kingdom era, they assert that the Sphinx was first built by an advanced pre-Pharaonic civilization that existed circa 12,000 years ago on the Giza Plateau, contemporaneous with the sophisticated Göbekli Tepe complex. The authors examine how the monuments at Giza memorialize Zep Tepi, the Golden Age of legend shown here to be an actual historical time period from roughly 10,500 BCE through 9700 BCE. Moving us closer to an understanding of the true age and purpose of the Great Sphinx, Schoch and Bauval provide evidence of an early high civilization witnessed by the Great Sphinx before the end of the last ice age.

In 1930, 757,000 Jews lived in Romania; they constituted the third largest Jewish community in Europe. Today not more than 14,000 Jews live in Romania, most of them elderly. The record of the Holocaust in Romania includes many curious chapters of support and betrayal, but they have been largely unavailable until now. Radu Ioanid's account based upon privileged access to secret East European government archives, is an unprecedented analysis of heretofore purposely hidden materials. Archival records, published and unpublished reports, memoirs of survivors, letters—Mr. Ioanid uses all these elements to build an accurate perspective on Romanian policies of racism, anti-Semitism, and Jewish extermination during the regime of Ion Antonescu. The publication of The Holocaust in Romania is timely as well as important, for there is now in Romania a growing effort to deny the government's role in the tragedy. Mr. Ioanid sheds light on the reality of the persecutions, the cruelty of the perpetrators, their blatant opportunism and endless cynicism. The story is one of destruction and survival; of German dissatisfaction with Romanian ad hoc violence; of an elusive national policy and the strategies of Romanian authorities that allowed 300,000 Romanian Jews to survive the war. "Invaluable...monumental...no comparable work in any language has documented this important history with the thoroughness, skill, and analytical sophistication this book demonstrates."—Leo Spitzer, Dartmouth College. Published in association with the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum. With 8 pages of photographs.

Sequel to Transylvania Sunrise wherein Radu Cinamar meets the Tibetan lama who orchestrated the discovery of ancient technology under the Romanian Sphinx

Shows how African shamans have used ibogaine for hundreds of years to communicate with ancestral spirits • Includes an interview with shaman Mallendi, initiation-master of the sacred root • Shows that the iboga plant, and its derivative ibogaine, is an anti-addictive agent, especially for heroin • Reveals how ibogaine has been suppressed by the DEA, the FDA, and Christian ministries
Iboga, spiritual ally of African shamans since antiquity, yields ibogaine, a powerful psychotropic substance. It is used mainly in Gabon and Cameroon in a secret, initiatory tradition called bwiti-nganza, in which physical and psychological illnesses can be rooted out and cured. Intense psychological conditioning that includes the rites of confession, contacting and honoring one's ancestors, and construction of an in-depth psychological inventory are all part of the initiate's encounter with this sacred root. Like many visionary and initiatory plants, iboga is a key that gives access to other modes of being and consciousness. Despite its suppression by the FDA since the 1960s, and more recently by the DEA, researchers have shown that ibogaine provides a powerful adjunct to psychology due to its miraculous ability to break addictions--most notably to heroin. To the followers of the Bwiti religion, ibogaine is the indispensable means by which humans can truly communicate with the deepest reaches of their soul and with the spirits of their ancestors. This book details the traditions and techniques of iboga's use by African shamans and the essential role it occupies in that community in order both to preserve this knowledge and to show how ibogaine may have an important role to play in our modern world.

In this exhilarating description of mysteries inside the Earth, Radu Cinamar presents a unique way to penetrate the Inner Earth through the process of feeling and the effects that will develop from such an experience. To enhance the readers understanding of this very guarded subject, this book includes multiple illustrations that include depictions of Inner Earth geography. Familiar characters from the Transylvania Series also reappear, including the enigmatic Tibetan lama, Repa Sundhi, also known as Dr Xien, who states: If someone had a device or machine that could start up and go everywhere they want, especially towards the centre of the Earth, the machine would be blocked and stop at a certain point because of the frequency of vibration to be found there. Just how far you can go with such a machine can be limited by reason of your own con- sciousness which can in and of itself restrict the dimensional range of such a device or the extent to which it can penetrate other realms. This applies to both human beings as well as material objects. Your ability to access such a region is determined by what your own individual frequency of con- sciousness can or will allow you to experience. This is not only the story of an exciting adventure, it is an opportunity for initiation as you explore the frequencies of your own inner nature.

There exists today a distinct threat to all of civilization as we know it. The unchecked proliferation of electromagnetic technology worldwide can wipe out all that we rely upon. Frequency saturation of the precious envelope of air surrounding our planet may today be affecting her stability. All our efforts to rectify global warming may be in vain should our new weapons and technology cause a major axis shift to Earth. • Are the ancient prophecies warning us not to repeat their mistakes? • Can electromagnetic pulse weapons wipe out our electricity-based infrastructure? • Will we trigger a pole shift? • Is weather modification technology being used as a weapon? • Does science consider the long-term effects of atmospheric frequency saturation? • Is global warming a natural occurrence or are we accelerating it?

This book contains tips on how to perform Wiccan candle spells effectively to help you achieve physical, mental, emotional, spiritual, social and financial fulfillment. Candle spells are believed to be the most potent of all Wiccan spells. Each time you perform a candle spell, you invoke the spirit of the fire, which is powerful, passionate and aggressive in nature. However, it is important to note that the effectiveness of a spell can be influenced by the smallest of details such as the color of the candles, the placement of the candles and the phase of the moon. In this book, you will encounter a brief introduction to candle magick, its origins, and the different colors of candles and their uses. When done correctly, Wiccan candle spells can help you achieve success in all areas of your life. This book features thirty candle spells that cover almost everything that a person may desire in his lifetime - from love to wealth to health. Moreover, this book contains spells for more specific desires ranging from a debt-clearing spell to a weight-loss spell to a libido-lifting spell. Even our cave-dwelling ancestors understood the protective power of fire. Our predecessors used its warmth and light to protect them from the unknown forces that creep in the shadows. We are constantly surrounded by low vibration beings relentlessly seeking for an opportunity to latch themselves onto us. Though unseen by the naked eye, the effects of these beings' physical, emotional, psychological and spiritual parasitism are manifested through illness, stress, procrastination, addictions and other negative thoughts, habits and emotions. Through this book, you'll find various spells that will let you shield yourself, your loved ones, your household, and even your psyche from malign influences that are constantly lurking about. Furthermore, you'll find spells on how to let go of negativity and self-destructive habits and spells to reverse curses whether they were done for you or by you. From the book: 1. A Candle Spell to Attract Love Perform this spell under the light of the New Moon. First, gather the following items: One white candle Three yellow colored candles Red rose petals Tea made from brewed mint leaves Next, cast your circle of protection. Arrange the yellow candles in a triangular pattern along your circle. Meanwhile, place the white candle right in the middle of the triangle, then take the rose petals and scatter them around you. Utter an invocation to your chosen deity. For this spell, it is best to invite the presence of deities who govern the force of love. Speak out loud your personal petition. Concentrate on your desire. The important thing is that you believe in every word that you say and that your words are being heard. Example of chant for love spell: Oh Aphrodite, I invite thee Goddess of love and beauty To bless me. Fill this space With thy glorious presence. Help my soulmate become aware Of my existence. So that he/she Will find his/her way to me. May he/she feel my love Across space and time. May I be his/hers And may he/she be mine. And then say: "For such is my will." After this, slowly sip the tea that you have prepared and kept warm. While doing so, meditate on the candles. Envision your soulmate. In your mind's eye, see the kind of life that you will spend together. Note: Before performing candle magick to attract your soulmate, it is necessary to have a clear idea of the kind of person that you want. Focus more on the internal characteristics rather than the external features. Example: instead of wishing for a soulmate with blonde hair and blue eyes, dedicate your energy into asking the universe for a lover who shares your passion, supports your beliefs, and someone with whom you will enjoy conversing. Next, extinguish the flames from the candles one by one, beginning with the white one. Gather the petals from the... (continued in book)"

This is a remarkable look into the intrigue surrounding the mysterious death of Rudolph Hess and why hundreds of millions of pounds a year were spent to keep him from having any communication with the outside world. This not only includes his association with the Vril flying saucers and Antarctica but other aspects of his legacy that have gone unnoticed. Told in the context of a historical novel, Peter Moon also fills in missing pieces of the Montauk saga by adding time travel to the mix and connecting dots that have previously been overlooked. This includes a look at three notable people who all lived in Egypt at the same time: Noble Drew Ali, Aleister Crowley, and Rudolph Hess. Directed by Tibetan elders, the Germans sought to harness the Vril, an energy so powerful that it can change the very nature of the elements themselves. To succeed, however, a major change was required in the evolutionary development of the human species. A dramatic scenario of events unfolded, however, which not only ensured that this endeavour was sabotaged but included an undertaking designed to prevent humanity from ever discovering its ancient heritage and the secrets of the Vril. It was against this backdrop that two of the most colourful characters of World War II, Rudolph Hess and George S. Patton, became immersed in an age old battle involving the legions of light and darkness. The end of World War II precipitated more intrigue and struggle for power than the war itself. Much of this centred around the secret projects sponsored by Rudolph Hess which included not only the Antarctic project but the construction of Vril flying saucers. Pattons job, as the war came to a close, was to recover the secret technology of the Germans and safeguard it for American use. After accomplishing his mission and compiling a German history of the war, General Patton was killed in a dubious accident, the mystery of which has never been solved and has been magnified by government refusal to declassify the file on the investigation of his death. Far more conspicuous and powerful than Patton was Rudolph Hess, the Deputy Führer of Germany, who flew to England in 1941 as an envoy of peace and was imprisoned for life and suspiciously killed just before his imminent release. The current of intrigue and power which permeated these two individuals and led to their downfall was the same current which led to a repatriation of the U.S. Government and an undermining of a constitutional government that is run by and for the people. Besides technology, much of this intrigue centred around the banking files the Nazis confiscated from the Freemasons. The effort to keep this secret is still a factor in todays politics. It was thus that Patton and Hess wore different uniforms but shared common interests and held within their grasp a force so powerful that, if harnessed, it might raise the ancient civilisation of Atlantis itself. It was for this power that both were killed and so begins our mystery.

In this book, philosopher Paul Brunton (1898-1981) encounters the mysteries and magic of Egypt in the 1930s, including an eerie yet illuminating night spent alone inside the Great Pyramid. Alongside his explorations of ancient Egypt's monuments and gods, Brunton encounters a variety of occultists, fakirs, and dervishes, and even manages to become initiated into the deadly art of snake charming. His frank interviews with Muslim leaders remain relevant today, and his description of the Hajj reflects the beauty and inspiring faith of Mohammad's true followers.

Brunton's journey to discover the furthest reaches of what the mind and body are capable of--and to distinguish various forms of yoga and magic from true spirituality--lead him to the myth of Osiris and to the mystery that is the Sphinx itself. In the end, Brunton turns his attention to his own spiritual path, connecting all of his experiences into a single discovery: that we are more than the body and that the freedom of our spirit can be experienced here and now. This new edition has been updated to incorporate Brunton's final revisions and includes an introduction by the Paul Brunton Philosophic Foundation. "Paul Brunton was a great original and got to a place of personal evolution that illumines the pathways of a future humanity." --Jean Houston, author of A Passion for the Possible and A Mythic Life "Any serious man or woman in search of spiritual ideas will find a surprising challenge and an authentic source of inspiration and intellectual nourishment in the writings of Paul Brunton."--Jacob Needleman, author of What is God?

A revised edition of the definitive translation of the world's most important book of divination • More than 64,000 copies sold of the first edition • The first English translation from within the tradition by a Chinese Taoist Master • Includes translations of the Ten Wings--the commentaries by Confucius essential to the I Ching's insights Translated by the eminent Taoist Master Alfred Huang, The Complete I Ching has been praised by scholars and new students of the I Ching since its first edition. A native Chinese speaker, Master Huang first translated the original ideograms of the I Ching into contemporary Chinese and then into English, bringing forth the intuitive meanings embodied in the images of the I Ching and imbuing his translation with an accuracy and authenticity not possible in other English translations. However, what makes his translation truly definitive is his return to prominence of the Ten Wings, the commentaries by Confucius that are essential to the I Ching's insights. This 10th anniversary edition offers a thorough introduction to the history of the I Ching, how to use it, and several new divination methods; in-depth and easy-to-reference translations of each hexagram name, description, and pictogram; and discussions of the interrelations between the hexagrams and the spiritual meaning of their sequence.

THE ETHERIC CRYSTAL - THE THIRD TUNNEL concludes both a numerological cycle (cycle 7) and offers the mystery of the last tunnel in the chamber beneath the (Romanian) sphinx, left unexplored by the author until 2015. After their expedition, this volume makes a very interesting turn, directing Radu to spawn special project which attracts a unique collaboration of characters, both from the underground city of Apellos but also with the American side. Also, for the first time in almost 14 years, Radu Cinamar offers us some additional conversations and collaboration with the enigmatic Elinor, the quintessential alchemist, who becomes deeply involved with the new project. The book also presents a key piece of information, long debated and considered until now an unsolved mystery, which refers to the real origin of the Moon. Everything is explained in chronological detail, following up on the elements about the origin of man presented in the previous volume, Forgotten Genesis. THE ETHERIC CRYSTAL is full of fascinating information that opens the horizons of our knowledge and of our individual evolution.
