

Rupert Annual 2018 Egmont Annuals 2018

This complete history of Rupert Bear reveals the fascinating story of how one little bear became a national treasure. It begins with Rupert's first appearance in the Daily Express newspaper and charts his journey to the present day, paying particular attention to the writers and artists who have brought him to life over the years. In his ninetieth year, Rupert Bear is still one of the most popular characters in literature, beloved by generations of children. This book gives a unique insight into the secrets of his success. Written by Rupert insider Ian Robinson, a former Daily Express writer who worked on Rupert Bear strips himself, readers can gain an insight into how these classic stories and much-loved characters came into being. The Rupert Companion also includes lavish illustrations from Rupert superstars such as John Harrold and Alfred Bestall. A gift book to cherish for all fans of Rupert Bear.

Here come the Numberjacks - the digits from 0 to 9 - in their second annual. There are secret missions and adventures with the Meanies to read about, as well as lots of puzzles and problems to solve. Take a look in the seemingly ordinary sofa to see some extraordinary things happening, make your own water clock and play the Shapes Race game. Plus, throughout the annual there are hidden Numberjacks and Meanies to spot, keeping adventurous young minds engaged and entertained. The essential gift for fans of the hugely-popular TV series and magazine.

Some of the most endearing Rupert stories from the 1940s to the 1990s are brought together in these themed volumes. Each volume focuses on one of the many elements of stories - including friendship, adventure, nature and magic - that have made Rupert so popular for the last eighty years.

"This Collector's Album brings together three much-loved Rupert Bear stories with one central theme -- Nature. Rupert Bear spends many of his days exploring Nutwood and its surroundings, finding creatures in the forests and hedgerows, and noticing the change of seasons." -- T.p. verso.

Rupert Bear has been a childhood favourite for over 80 years. This edition only includes stories illustrated by Alfred Edmeades Bestall, who was the most popular illustrator of the lovable bear. Produced with careful thought to every detail, this slipcased treasury is going to win over the hearts of all fans, and those meeting Rupert for the first time. It includes an Introduction by Caroline Bott, Bestall's goddaughter and a Foreword by Gyles Brandreth. The stories have been carefully selected to appeal to readers of all ages. It also includes some never-been-seen-before sketches by Bestall kindly donated by Caroline Bott. The treasury format is a proven success for Egmont. Exquisitely designed, with smart black foil on the cover, this book shows Bestall's work at its best. This is the brand new TV series debuted on 8 November 2006 on Five's Milkshake at 7.30 am and on Five Life on 10 December at 9.30 am. Parents and grandparents will undoubtedly be keen to introduce children to the classic and much-loved bear.

The Velveteen Rabbit is not a 'real' rabbit, like the rabbits he meets in the forest. He has seams and is full of stuffing. Still, the Velveteen Rabbit doesn't mind as long as the boy who owns him loves him. One of the rabbit's friends tells him that a toy becomes real if its owner truly loves it. But when the boy leaves home to recover from an illness and is forced to leave his Velveteen Rabbit behind, what will become of his beloved toy? The Velveteen Rabbit (or How Toys Become Real) is a children's book written by Margery Williams (also known as Margery Williams Bianco) and illustrated by William Nicholson. It chronicles the story of a stuffed rabbit and his desire to become real, through the love of his owner. The book was first published in 1922 and has been republished many times since. The Velveteen Rabbit was Williams' first children's book. It has been awarded the IRA/CBC Children's Choice award. Get Your Copy Now.
