It is important for new Christians to understand the basics of their salvation and learn the principles that govern their new lives. Key Facts for New Believers has been designed to meet this need and provide a foundation for new Christians to walk victoriously in their newfound faith

Humility is an important spiritual quality. Few people have dared to write about this nebulous, but important spiritual quality. In this new exciting volume, Dag Heward-Mills exposes the many subtle forms of pride. This powerful book, written by a fellow struggling Christian, will bless you and encourage you to develop the childlike humility of Jesus Christ.

Though a primary requirement of God for leaders, very little has been written on this subject. In this book, Dag Heward-Mills outlines very important principles with the intention of increasing the stability of churches. So relevant and practical is the content of this book that it has become an indispensable tool for many church leaders.

David was one of the most respected kings of all time and above all, he was a man after God's own heart. Surely that description is success. At the end of his life, he was rich, respected and even had a successor – his own son Solomon. But David did not easily get to this successful point. He had to make important decisions. In this book Dag Heward-Mills shares a few secrets that helped David become the successful king he was, proves it with Scriptures and call it Davidic principles. Anyone that wants to be successful need to start small and Christians should not shy away from menial jobs, because the best leader is someone who has been a follower for many years. The author also warns that anyone who is blessed by God will begin to have arrows of hatred and jealousy thrown at him. If you really want to be successful, you need to be quick to see and admit your own mistakes. Dag Heward-Mills' conclusion is that not many people succeed in this life but it is wise to notice and study those that are successful. Hebrews 6:12 teaches us to follow those who inherit the promises of God.

Do you know that a mans life upon the earth is warfare? We are at war whether we choose to be at war or not. The Bible says that your life is warfare. You must fight the good fight and win the war. This new book on warfare is a must read for all leaders.

This exciting and in-depth study on the subject of 'faith' is sure to be of interest to any one whose desire is to please God. For, without faith it is impossible to please God, the Bible says. This is the reason why this book is a must-read for everyone with a desire to please God. If faith made Abraham a friend of God, then faith is very important in our walk with God. This book is a treasure!

Discover the secrets needed to walk and live by faith. Unveil the faith secrets you need to accomplish the impossible in your life!

Dag Heward-Mills wrote this book because the concept of sacrificing anything to God is foreign to most Christians today. The goals of most Christians today are to get more money, houses, cars and security. Even pastors measure their success by the amount of money they have and by the size of offerings in their churches. Sacrifice means giving up something . It is the central theme of the Bible. Yet, today, sacrifice is one of the most hushed topics. The cross, which is the symbol of Christianity, is a call to sacrifice. The author also speaks to Christian leaders and tells them you cannot follow Jesus unless you are ready to sacrifice something. There is a great difference between giving up something and having it taken from you. Dag Heward-Mills says he has watched as people tried to preserve themselves and their families but ended up losing them. Jesus knew that the Pharisees would eventually kill Him and instead of waiting for that to happen, He gave up Himself to be crucified

The gift of a “father” is a rare gift. Not every man of God is a father. In this book Dag Heward-Mills teaches that there will be many people who will make an impact in your life and that instructors and teachers have an impact on your life but that it is different from fathers. It is a total package that cares about you more than just giving you a good teaching. According to Dag Heward-Mills God is going to send a number of people to father you – not just your biological father. Sadly the reason for this is that our biological fathers don’t always talk to their children about everything. Biological fathers sometimes hope that someone else will answer the difficult questions and guide their children to safety. One of the keys to recognizing a father is to recognize the love, care and direction of our heavenly Father being transmitted through him to your life. In the book nine types of fathers in a person’s life are named and explained so that you can recognize them. The author explains that there are also certain responsibilities for a son or daughter to not just be around but to do and mean something. This book will help you recognize when you should be a father to someone or to recognize a father that has been sent to you by God.

The Bible admonishes us to: "look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others"(Phillippians 2:4). In this timely book, Dag Heward-Mills challenges you to go beyond thinking about yourself and think of others also! Love others also! Consider others also! Care about others also! Live for others also! Jesus came to die for us because He thought about "others". I want to be more like Him. Do you want to be like Jesus?

The priorities of Jesus are stated throughout the Gospels. When you are a sinner, you basically choose between two options: good and evil. As you grow in the Lord, your options increase and you begin to have more to choose from. Now you have to choose between good and good. When you get to this point, it is important to understand the concept of priorities so that you can decide what to do first. Whenever Jesus spoke of the first or the foremost issue, He used the Greek word proton. In this book Dag Heward-Mills takes a look at the proton issues, things that Jesus said should be done first. This passionate author takes a look at all the important aspects of our lives like relationships, our faults, our problems, our mistakes and what the priority should be in these aspects. One of the examples is that the Lord wants us to sort out our relationships before we come to Him

For he that hath, to him shall be given: and he that hath not, from him shall be taken even that which he hath. -Mark 4:25 "What a seemingly unfair Scripture! Why should those who have money be the ones to get even more money? Why should those who have little be the ones to lose even what they have? Why is it that in real life, it is those who have, who get even more? Why is it that things are the exact opposite of what we expect? - Even though this Scripture sounds unfair, it is true for two reasons. It is true because Jesus said it. Heaven and earth will pass away but His words will not pass away (Matthew 24:35). The words of Jesus are the most powerful words ever spoken." So opens this book which examines one of the most heartfelt cries of the human heart: why is that fair? In this work Dag Heward-Mills, founder of a charismatic denomination with now well over a thousand planted churches worldwide, illuminates the Biblical truths that bear up what Christ declared and helps us overcome the perceived unfairness of the concept. He That Hath... is another life-changing best-seller from a man of God who excels for Christ. About the author: Endorsed by Dr David Yonggi Cho, Dag Heward-Mills is the founder of Lighthouse Chapel International, which has become a worldwide denomination. In this book Dag Heward-Mills unveils the certain characters that you deal with in your ministry and who you should watch out for. You'll get to deal with doubtful men whose loyalty comes into question from time to time, dangerous sons who can turn on you like wild tigers, bad advisors who will not protect and help you and painfully disloyal people. Scoffers and mockers will always be part of the world we live in and they don't think much of you and actually despise you. This is a spirit that tries to shut up and intimidate you. Like in any other work environment, there is always a person that you should watch out for and that is why you should be able to recognize these certain traits that are taught in this book. The author also tells the reader to be grateful. This world has six billion ungrateful people! This is what creates the discontentment, conflict and wars.

planting, however, demands skill and embraces multiple factors. Dag Heward-Mills analyzes the various components of church planting in this book. It is a training manual for any minister who wants to make church planting his vision for life.
