Traditionally, Sanskrit has been language of quotation rather than conversation. It is in this light that a serious attempt has been initiated to facilitate those, who want to communicate in Sanskrit, but are held up due to non availability of Sanskrit vocabulary for modern technology, concepts and lifestyle. This book is meant for all those who would like to converse in Sanskrit, in a specific situation. The book is focussed on Sanskrit conversation in day to day life and social interaction about current affairs. After reading this book, the reader can indulge in routine Sanskrit conversation. Since modern concept like civil administration, journalism, judiciary, international-relations etc. were not in vogue when Sanskrit was an official language of administration in the olden days, the book has taken unprecedented initiative to bridge the linguistic gap between the past and the present.
