Simple, needs-related grammar presented on a need-to-know basis, to help learners start communicating immediately. Vocabulary relevant to practical work situations. Short, interactive speaking tasks enable learners to use new language in hands-on contexts such as explaining purpose and giving instructions. Regular reviews and updates Real help in telephoning, socializing, and reading technical information.

Survival skills such as getting directions, changing money, and ordering food, plus games and other fun activities.

The Workbook offers plenty of extra practice, revision, and reviews. Mirroring the Student's Book content, with the same clear structure, it provides extra reading and writing practice opportunities for both weaker and stronger students. The Writing Bank at the back of the book gives a quick guide to text types, with model structures and key language as well as exam strategies, plus a Functions Bank for functional phrases for speaking and writing. There is plenty of exam practice in the Get Ready for your Exam sections and these, along with the Self-Check pages after each unit and the review sections at the back of the books, allow students and their teachers to keep track of their progress as they work towards their exams. The accompanying Audio CD offers students a huge amount of listening practice. There are audio recordings for tasks in every lesson (not only for the Vocabulary & Listening lessons).

A Time Best YA Book of All Time (2021) In this "searing work of historical fiction" (Booklist), Coretta Scott King Award-winning author Sharon M. Draper tells the epic story of a young girl torn from her African village, sold into slavery, and stripped of everything she has ever known—except hope. Amari's life was once perfect. Engaged to the handsomest man in her tribe, adored by her family, and fortunate enough to live in a beautiful village, it never occurred to her that it could all be taken away in an instant. But that was what happened when her village was invaded by slave traders. Her family was brutally murdered as she was dragged away to a slave ship and sent to be sold in the Carolinas. There she was bought by a plantation owner and given to his son as a "birthday present". Now, survival is all Amari can dream about. As she struggles to hold on to her memories, she also begins to learn English and make friends with a white indentured servant named Molly. When an opportunity to escape presents itself, Amari and Molly seize it, fleeing South to the Spanish colony in Florida at Fort Mose. Along the way, their strength is tested like never before as they struggle against hunger, cold, wild animals, hurricanes, and people eager to turn them in for reward money. The hope of a new life is all that keeps them going, but Florida feels so far away and sometimes Amari wonders how far hopes and dreams can really take her.

Find soul mate...check. Harness the power of the Wiccan gods...check. Defeat the evil First Traveler...check. Live a normal life...maybe not. Dagny and Marc are done with destiny. After defeating the First Traveler, they want to leave the Wiccan world behind. But as they settle back into the routine of high school, it seems destiny has other plans. Prophetic dreams, a secret cult and a stranger calling himself the Guardian force Dagny and Marc to face the truth. Channeling the powers of the gods comes with a price and the gods have come to collect. Now Dagny and Marc must choose between each other and the path the gods have written, a path leading to a mysterious gateway that if opened will shatter the Wiccan world. Their love survived the threat of an ancient witch, but can it survive the will of the gods? In this story of love, betrayal and magic, no one is safe and there is no such thing as destiny.

Intended for professionals who need English for work, travel, and socializing, this highly practical course bridges the gap between general English and the professional world of working adults. The syllabus is based on the needs of people in work who use English as an international means of communication, especially those who find that general coursebooks are too general, and business English courses too specialized.

The Latin course is written entirely in Latin. It consists of two parts: I: Familia Romana -- the fundamental or elementary course. II: Roma Aeterna -- the advanced course, with Indices covering both parts. The direct method is based on the inductive principle of learning. In the text every sentence is intelligible per se, or self-explanatory, because the meaning and function of all new words and grammatical forms are made clear by the context in which they occur, or if necessary, by illustrations or marginal notes using vocabulary already learned. This demands a carefully graded text, but in order to make learning efficient the content should stimulate interest and curiosity and make it easy for the reader to visualise the scenes and situations described. To meet these demands the chapters of Lingua Latina I form a continuous narrative, a sort of Latin novel, which captivates the students so that they look forward to reading the continuation of the story. While reading this story and learning facts about the Roman life and traditions, the students pick up the vocabulary and grammar that will enable them to go on, in Part II, to read a representative selection of Latin literature, both prose and poetry. Here, too, all new words and structures, if not immediately intelligible from the context, are explained by marginal notes or illustrations. In addition, factual information is given in the margin. Part I covers the essentials of Latin grammar and introduces a basic vocabulary of some 1600 words. The 35 chapters form a sequence of scenes and incidents from the life of a Roman family in the second century A.D. Each chapter is divided into 3 or 4 lessons (lectiones) and consists of several text pages followed by a section on grammar, three exercises, and a list of new words. At the end of the volume there is a survey of inflexions, a Roman calendar, and alphabetical word-list and a grammatical index.
