This book grew out of the discovery, in 1986, of an unpublished manuscript by Napoleon Hill, author of "Think and Grow Rich." Hill had organized the text as a series of seventeen lessons, apparently to be taught in a seminar context, each lesson based on one of the Seventeen Principles of Success that he and W. Clement Stone developed when they worked together on Seminars and books, including the self-help classic "Success Through a Positive Mental Attitude." The Kinder Brothers, two outstanding life-insurance sales-persons have written this book using some of the Hill material. They share what they call a "value-added" approach to selling and refer to the buyer-oriented approach of "need selling rather than greed selling." Attract the right clients who will step-up your sales game! Sometimes people go into sales thinking it will be easy or it's a surefire way to make extra money on the side. Do you hate shopping for insurance? Try selling it! Although insurance companies have some of the most entertaining commercials on television, most people still dread shopping for insurance more than just about any other product or service. The experience people have often leaves them confused as to what they are really paying for. As an insurance agency owner since 2001, I have learned it doesn't have to be that way. This book will explain how people can have a better experience when buying insurance if:

- * They feel that their needs are the focus of the agent.
- * They feel confident the insurance coverage will help them when it's needed.* The customer relationship is maintained by the agent through effective communication. This book will also explain how insurance agents can: * Create a learning environment when meeting with a client.* Foster the perception of an insurance expert.* Build an agency team of teachers.* Continue to educate and coach clients beyond the initial purchase. The best salespeople are good teachers. Buying insurance requires trust that the policy you buy is what you need. An insurance agent that can educate someone on their needs as well as their policy coverages will earn that trust. Maintaining that trust as life and needs change will allow for a long term client/ advisor relationship which is the ultimate goal.

Based on Napoleon Hill's The Science of Successful Insurance Selling, this book integrates Hill's "value-added" or client-needs principles of insurance selling with modern sells techniques and developments in the insurance sales industry.

This book will teach you how to:

- Show you how to unlock the myths that are holding you back

In How Any Agent Can Escape the Price Battlefield, Ben Page shares his proven step-by-step method for winning more quality clients BEFORE any talk of price, coverage, service, or value pitch. This isn't theory, it's the result of a 20-year quest to sell more insurance inside of his agencies. It also is NOT what you'd expect. It is NOT the tired old (and limited) advice to sell value. It's unlike anything you're likely to hear from marketing reps, well-meaning managers, or self-proclaimed gurus who aren't in the trenches selling. They often encourage agents to do what Page calls "Pitching for Policies" by making value arguments (i.e., look at all of these benefits for the price!). While Page agrees that value arguments are better than just price quotes, they are nothing compared to the secrets he shares in his book. Section One: Discover the Real Game People aren't really looking for insurance. People aren't really convinced by a proposal (value argument). Discover what they are really looking for, what most agents never give them, and how you can be one of the few that gets what it's about (hint: NOT a value argument). Section Two: Win the Real Game Positioning secrets to attract and win (Who, What, How and Advantages). How to say NO to bad business and leave
