A Mother and Son Fishing Adventure

The Newbery Medal and Coretta Scott King Award-winning classic about a boy who decides to hit the road to find his father—from Christopher Paul Curtis, author of The Watsons Go To Birmingham—1963, a Newbery and Coretta Scott King Honoree. It's 1936, in Flint Michigan. Times may be hard, and ten-year-old Bud may be a motherless boy on the run, but Bud's got a few things going for him: 1. He has his own suitcase full of special things. 2. He's the author of Bud Caldwell's Rules and Things for Having a Funner Life and Making a Better Liar Out of Yourself. 3. His momma never told him who his father was, but she left a clue: flyers advertising Herman E. Calloway and his famous band, the Dusky Devastators of the Depression!!!!!! Bud's got an idea that those flyers will lead him to his father. Once he decides to hit the road to find this mystery man, nothing can stop him—not hunger, not fear, not vampires, not even Herman E. Calloway himself. AN ALA BEST BOOK FOR YOUNG ADULTS AN ALA NOTABLE CHILDREN'S BOOK AN IRA CHILDREN'S BOOK AWARD WINNER NAMED TO 14 STATE AWARD LISTS "The book is a gem, of value to all ages, not just the young people to whom it is aimed." —The Christian Science Monitor "Will keep readers engrossed from first page to last." —Publishers Weekly, Starred "Curtis writes with a razor-sharp intelligence that grabs the reader by the heart and never lets go. . . . This highly recommended title [is] at the top of the list of books to be read again and again." —Voice of Youth Advocates, Starred From the Hardcover edition.

Calling readers and daydreamers, word mavens and lovers of adventure! This celebration of the power of books is a rallying cry for letting imaginations soar. We learn important stuff from books. We learn to speak and think. We learn why icebergs stay afloat . . . and why Titanics sink. Have you ever wanted to climb to the top of Everest with one hand behind your back? Kiss a crocodile all by yourself on the Nile River? How about learning how to bottle moonlight, or track a distant star? There are endless things to discover and whole universes to explore simply by reading a book. But books are only smears of ink without the reader's mind to give their letters meaning and bring them to life. With a rollicking, rhyming text and delightful artwork, poet and storyteller Allan Wolf and illustrator Brianne Farley remind us that books, no matter how they may be consumed, give readers of every background an opportunity to expand their world and spark their imagination. With infectious enthusiasm, No Buddy Like a Book offers an ode to the wonders of language--written, spoken, and everything in between.

On most of the pages there is a squirrel helping Buddy race around the motocross track! About The Author Buddy the Motocross Bike was created by Kyle Burger in 2010. Kyle raced motocross throughout his youth and was pursuing a career in racing. On October 1st, 2008, fate stepped in and kicked his racing career to the curb. Kyle broke his neck at the age of 18 at a Dodge Amateur National. This would halt his career in motocross but not his love for the sport. While Kyle could not race anymore, he still was very passionate about motocross and wanted to be involved in it in some way. So... he decided to write a book. A kids book about motocross, to inspire tomorrows youth to grow up loving motocross like he did. During the process of writing the book he had an illustrator that was doing a great job. Although life got in the way for him and he had to back out. So Kyle was stuck with half of a book illustrated. As fate would have it, an old friend of his was finishing school to become an illustrator and they got back in touch. The rest is history. He started from scratch illustrating the book and did a fantastic job creating many professional illustrations. Kyle is in the process of writing more books, so stay tuned! Author: Growing up I could never find any Motocross or even dirt bike books for kids. So, I decided to write a book just for kids that was all about motocross / dirt bikes & racing! David Crockett was an adventurer, a pioneer, and a media-savvy national celebrity. In his short-but-distinguished lifetime, this charismatic frontiersman won three terms as a U.S. congressman and a presidential nomination. His 1834 memoir enjoyed frenzied sales and prompted the first-ever "official" book tour for its enormously popular author. Down-to-earth, heroic and independent to a fault, the real Crockett became lost in his own hype, and he's been overshadowed by a larger-than-life, pop-culture character in a coonskin cap. Now, American Legend debunks the tall tales to reveal the fascinating truth of Crockett's hardscrabble childhood, his near-death experiences, his unlikely rise to Congress, and the controversial last stand at the Alamo that mythologized him beyond recognition. In this beautifully written narrative, Crockett emerges as never before: a rugged individual, a true American original, and an enduring symbol of the Western frontier. "A great myth-busting story [that] presents Davy Crockett as a man of genius and folly, which has the unlikely effect of making him all the more heroic."—Martin Dugard, author of The Last Voyage of Columbus and Into Africa: The Epic Adventures of Stanley and Livingstone "As spellbinding and dramatic as any novel and as compelling as any reportage."—Peter Hoffer, Distinguished Research Professor of History, The University of Georgia

Hi! My name is Buddy, and I'm a pit bull dog. I was adopted from the local animal shelter. Now I live in a nice home with my new mom and dad, and I have a brother, Gus. In the beginning, with my first dad, my life was gloom and doom. My new mom noticed I was abused since I walked all hunkered down with my head tilted sideways. I did not trust anyone. Some people think the worst of me since I'm a pit bull. My life has changed a lot from my first home. Now I have lots of friends who like me. My special friend is Lucy. Lucy comes to visit me in my time of need. Lucy will appear from time to time in future books. My mom said there are more stories to tell since I am so smart and full of mischief. I hope you all look forward to reading more stories of the Adventures of Buddy.

"Butterflies flutter, birds soar, and geysers burst into the sky. Join Buddy Bison and his two new friends as they explore the majestic Yellowstone National Park. Breathtaking photographs of Yellowstone serve as the backdrop for the wacky adventures of a curious pair of twins, Elana and Christopher, who are spending the summer with their aunt Rosa, a park ranger... This charming tale is sprinkled with helpful tidbits about the park, weird-but-true facts about the animals, and more fun facts kids adore. A comprehensive afterword offers a short history of the park and ways kids can get involved in parks preservation"--

As a little girl growing up, having a pet of my own was always on my wish list. Christmas of 2012, a four-legged Yorkie named Buddy entered our family. My 10-year-old self was overjoyed and filled with excitement, as Buddy became my closest companion. In April of 2018, I lost Buddy due to an unexpected illness. For days, I found myself sitting in the driveway dreading the thought of walking through the door knowing Buddy would not be there ready to pounce on me. It took weeks to come face to face with the reality that he was gone. I wrote this book not only in remembrance of my dog Buddy, who taught me first-hand to love like there is no tomorrow, but also as a reminder that no matter what, you always have a BUDDY to LUV.

"An understated winner of a friendship story. ... simultaneously of-the-moment and timeless." — Publishers Weekly, STARRED REVIEW What's in the box that Meredith has carried into the living room? Buddy doesn't know, but when the small, prickly creature says he is a pirate — and that Buddy is a pirate, too — the mismatched friends are off on a grand adventure. In this first book in the best-selling Buddy and Earl series, a dog who likes to play by the rules meets a hedgehog who knows no limits. Their friendship is tender and loyal, and their adventures are funny and imaginative. Maureen Fergus's text is witty and understated, and Carey Sookocheff's art emphasizes both the humor and the warmth of this odd and loveable animal couple.
