Animal Miracles of the God Kind contains over seventy inspirational stories of God's love for man and animals. Some stories contain supernatural dreams and visions. There are other accounts of miraculous rescues by those who care deeply for God's creatures. Some stories speak of angels and some are by noted ministers and those God has gifted with a heavenly presence. The stories are accompanied by over 200 scriptures revealing Biblical truths many are unaware of. Animal Miracles of the God Kind offers joy, comfort and assurance of God's eternal covenant with man and animals. Most of all it speaks of God, His son Jesus Christ, and their sacrificial love for all creation. Animal Miracles of the God Kind, written by Dr. Mary Buddemeyer-Porter, is a great example of God's grace and love for His creation. We see this in the wonderful testimonies in this book as well as the combination of God's Holy Word. The use of scripture showing that our four-legged friends are eternal is not only factual, but heartwarming as well. Bishop Dr. D. Schmidt, CPC, Ph.D. President Crossroads Theological Seminary Mary Buddemeyer-Porter's latest book, Animal Miracles of the God Kind, continues along the journey Mary started with Will I See Fido in Heaven? We read once again how much God cares for His animal kingdom that He created for His glory. But, this time, we also read about the special miracles that God allows for them. For anyone who has doubted the immortality of animals and how far God goes to provide for them, then you'll want to read this book! For those of you who don't doubt, this book will reaffirm what you already know about the providence of God for ALL His creatures! Dr. Kim Bloomer Veterinary naturopath, author Host of "Animal Talk Naturally"

Our opening verse for this book is from John 10:10b, I came that they may have and enjoy life, and have it in abundance (to the full, till it overflows). The Greek word used here for life is zo. So we can conclude that Jesus came to show us how to have and enjoy the god kind of life. As a born-again believer you have been recreated and given a new life code (or DNA) to live by, and Jesus came to show us how to live that new creation reality here on earth. The Bible tells us in John 3:16, For God so greatly loved and dearly prized the world that He (even) gave up His only begotten (unique) Son, so that whoever believes in (trusts in, clings to, relies on) Him shall not perish (come to destruction, be lost) but have eternal (everlasting) life. Then in Romans 6:23 it tells us, For the wages which sin pays is death, but the bountiful free gift of God is eternal (the god kind of) life through and in union with Jesus Christ our Lord. This eternal life he came to give us is the very nature of God. In John 1:4 we can get a better understanding of what this life will do for us: In Him was Life, and the Life was the Light of men. One of the meanings for light in the dictionary is a state of understanding or awareness. So we could read this verse like this: in him was the god kind of life, and the god kind of life was the state of understanding and awareness for men. Let us live out of the zo kind of life and determine to be led by the spirit of God in all that we do so we can live in the actual abundance of God. Amen.

The book reveals that love has its source from God. It makes us understand that love for man, made Jesus to come to the world and to pay the supreme sacrifice for our salvation. It emphasizes on the truth that the Commandment of love is all about selfless giving. It makes us understand that when you give for God's project or to assist others, you are investing for greater rewards from God and not actually spending your resources. It reveals that love is the only gasoline that makes faith to function. It helps us understand that without love other fruits of the Holy Spirit would not function as expected. It recognizes that the Holy Spirit, Who is the Spirit of love, works more effectively when a Christian walks in love. It makes us understand that love has no boundary as believers should love their enemies the same way they love others. It makes us know that couples who walk in love live glorious lives here on earth and have hope for eternity. It informs us that love is the only way to shun the adversary and all social vices. It makes us understand that love is the only effective binding agent that would make the world live in peace and harmony. With the tide of hatred and wickedness watered down, because people have opted to work in love, insecurity will be considerably reduced and landslides, earthquakes, wildfires, storms, floods and challenging health situations ravaging the world will considerably ebb. The book calls on all, who have not done so, to reciprocate God's love by receiving Jesus Christ as their Lord and Savior. This will make them be reconciled to God, have eternal life and be translated to the Kingdom of God's Son of love. Thereafter they could walk in love and by faith as led by the Holy Spirit. This is because life is spiritual.

Insightful and heart-warming, this classic book is written for those who seek to know God better. It unfolds life-impacting, biblical truths and has been called a "soul-stirring celebration of the pleasures of knowing God."

Ancient tradition suggests that this world-weary lament is the work of Solomon in old age. Casting its eye over the transient nature of life, the book questions the striving for wisdom and the truth, choosing instead to espouse the value of living for the moment. The text is introduced by Doris Lessing.

Too often, our study of the Bible focuses on searching for specific information or some formula that will solve our pressing needs of the moment. But what if we approached the Bible differently, and instead of transforming the text to meet our needs, allowed it to transform us? That's exactly the idea behind Life with God, Richard J. Foster's much-anticipated book on the Bible. Foster, bestselling author of Celebration of Discipline and general editor of The RenovarÉ Spiritual Formation Bible, claims that God has superintended the writing of Scripture so that it serves as the most reliable guide for Christian spiritual formation. According to Foster, the Bible is all about human life "with God." As we read Scripture, we should consider how exactly God is with us in each story and allow ourselves to be spiritually transformed. By opening our whole selves—mind, body, spirit, thoughts, behavior, and will—to the page before us, we begin to grasp all the Bible has to teach about prayer, obedience, compassion, virtue, and grace and apply it to our everyday lives to achieve a deeper relationship with God. With a wealth of examples and simple yet crucial insights, Life with God is an indispensable guide to approaching the Bible through the lens of Christian spiritual formation, revealing that reading the Bible for interior transformation is a far different endeavor than reading the Bible for historical knowledge, literary appreciation, or religious instruction.

We'll find not only the depth of our own vices and value, but the God who is at the center of this drama, beckoning us home to be the people we were meant to be. It's David's story. It is our story.

As a young preacher, Rev. Kenneth E. Hagin asked himself this question. He studied the subject and concluded the following: "We as a Church have authority on the earth that we've never yet realized... A few of us have barely gotten to the edge of that authority, but before Jesus comes again, there's going to be a whole company of believers who will rise up with the authority that is theirs. They will know what is theirs, and they will do the work that God intended they should do." From the bestselling author of A History of God and The Great Transformation comes a balanced, nuanced understanding of the role religion plays in human life and the trajectory of faith in modern times. Why has God become incredible? Why is it that atheists and theists alike now think and speak about God in a way that veers so profoundly from the thinking of our ancestors? Moving from the Paleolithic Age to the present, Karen Armstrong details the lengths to which humankind has gone to experience a sacred reality that it called God, Brahman, Nirvana, Allah, or Dao. She examines the diminished impulse toward religion in our own time when a significant number of people either want nothing to do with God or question the efficacy of faith. With her trademark depth of knowledge and profound insight, Armstrong elucidates how the changing world has necessarily altered the importance of religion at both societal and individual levels. And she makes a powerful, convincing argument for structuring a faith that speaks to the needs of our dangerously polarized age.
