The riveting story of the entrepreneurs and renegades fighting to bring lab-grown meat to the world. The trillion-dollar meat industry is one of our greatest environmental hazards; it pollutes more than all the world's fossil-fuel-powered cars. Global animal agriculture is responsible for deforestation, soil erosion, and more emissions than air travel, paper mills, and coal mining combined. It also, of course, depends on the slaughter of more than 60 billion animals per year, a number that is only increasing as the global appetite for meat swells. But a band of doctors, scientists, activists, and entrepreneurs have been racing to end animal agriculture as we know it, hoping to fulfill a dream of creating meat without ever having to kill an animal. In the laboratories of Silicon Valley companies, Dutch universities, and Israeli startups, visionaries are growing burgers and steaks from microscopic animal cells and inventing systems to do so at scale--allowing us to feed the world without slaughter and environmental devastation. Drawing from exclusive and unprecedented access to the main players, from polarizing activist-turned-tech CEO Josh Tetrick to lobbyists and regulators on both sides of the issue, Billion Dollar Burger follows the people fighting to upend our food system as they butt up against the entrenched interests fighting viciously to stop them. The stakes are monumentally high: cell-cultured meat is the best hope for sustainable food production, a key to fighting climate change, a gold mine for the companies that make it happen, and an existential threat for the farmers and meatpackers that make our meat today. Are we ready?

A Pulitzer Prize-winning correspondent with unprecedented access to the inner workings of the U.S. Supreme Court chronicles the personal transformation of a legendary justice. From 1970 to 1994, Justice Harry A. Blackmun (1908-1999) wrote numerous landmark Supreme Court decisions, including Roe v. Wade, and participated in the most contentious debates of his era—all behind closed doors. In Becoming Justice Blackmun, Linda Greenhouse of The New York Times draws back the curtain on America's most private branch of government and reveals the backstage story of the Supreme Court through the eyes and writings of this extraordinary justice. Greenhouse was the first print reporter to have access to Blackmun's extensive archive and his private and public papers. From this trove she has crafted a compelling narrative of Blackmun's years on the Court, showing how he never lost sight of the human beings behind the legal cases and how he was not afraid to question his own views on such controversial issues as abortion, the death penalty, and sex discrimination. Greenhouse also tells the story of how Blackmun's lifelong friendship with Chief Justice Warren E. Burger withered in the crucible of life on the nation's highest court, revealing how political differences became personal, even for the country's most respected jurists. Becoming Justice Blackmun, written by America's preeminent Supreme Court reporter, offers a rare and wonderfully vivid portrait of the nation's highest court, including insights into many of the current justices. It is a must-read for everyone who cares about the Court and its impact on our lives.

A fun, deep dive into the world of delicious barbecue and how to bring it to your own backyard from two celebrated New York chefs (Matt Abdoo of Del Posto and Shane McBride of Balthazar) who gave up their Michelin starred restaurants for the smoke and ribs at Pig Beach! Matt Abdoo and Shane McBride cut their teeth preparing three-star Italian and French cuisine. But, in their spare time, what they really loved cooking and eating was barbecue. After years of apprenticeships with the masters and winning barbecue contests, they opened a pop-up in Brooklyn, Pig Beach, selling ribs, pulled pork, chicken, and strong drinks. Now, it's become full-time restaurants in Brooklyn (over 7,000 square feet serving over 10,000 diners a week), Long Island City, and Palm Beach, and they have a deal with Hormel to use their award-winning sauce on their products. Eater has named Pig Beach "an essential barbecue restaurant" and Southern Living has put it on their "Great American Barbecue Bucket List." In homage to their upbringing, Matt and Shane have highlighted the voices of their mentors and peers throughout the book, allowing them to add their insights and wisdom alongside the two chefs' Pig Beach narrative. Not only does this position the book as a collection of barbecue greats mentoring new pitmasters through the ages, but it also relays a wide breadth of barbecue experience and knowledge.

Readers will be taken on a barbecue tour of the United States, learning exactly how North Carolina 'cue differs from Texas 'cue, which of course differs from Alabama 'cue, highlighting and exploring those techniques from the local pitmasters themselves and explaining how anyone can replicate those flavors in their own kitchen. From tips on buying or making the best smoker, to award-winning riffs on traditional barbecue, Pig Beach BBQ Cookbook is a tour through the world of great smoked meat, chicken, veggies, and sauces. Mixing more traditional mouthwatering dishes like Good Old Buffalo Chicken Wings or Smoked Beef Brisket with groundbreaking new dishes like Za'atar Rubbed Leg of Lamb, and Yuzu Glazed Smoked Duck, and recipes for their championship-winning sauces and rubs, this cookbook will be the one that any griller/smoker worth his salt rub will want to own.
