Dr. Vic Shayne's new book is based on years of research to prove that vitamins fail to act as nutrients unless still contained in nature's original whole foods. For the millions of us who see the importance of taking supplements, this book offers secrets that vitamin companies would rather not be published. Nature's wondrous healing and life-sustaining power resides within whole foods, not vitamins alone. With every disease and symptom is associated a nutritional deficiency, and we need much more than isolated vitamins to make us well. In this age of refined, altered and chemicalized diets and exposure to environmental toxins, our cells demand whole food supplementation for real nutrients that vitamin pills alone cannot begin to offer us. Vitamins need synergists to function. The difference between illness and health is often just a few nutrients away. The more we know, the more control we have over our own health.

Adam - The Missing Link - is the third and final book of The Adam Series trilogy by author Leon Bibi. In this final chapter, evidence of extraterrestrial tampering with human DNA is explored, and evidence given to prove that the Missing Link has never been missing. It is not found "embedded in the crust of the Earth", it is found within us. The missing link is not a "transitional form" that proves that man is a direct descendant of the ape, it is an alteration of DNA. What do the following scientists have in common? Nikola Tesla, Carl Sagan, Albert Einstein and Stephen Hawking? They all believed that life on Earth originated in the stars. What do all of the following symbols have in common? The Caduceous Symbol of Medicine, The Sumerian Tree of Life and Snakes from the Bible? They are all representations of DNA. Why do 223 genes in our genome have no known earthly predecessor? Genes such as- Chromosome 2, MIR-941, SRGAP2 and FOXP2? They are all examples of fusion by extraterrestrials. If Darwin was right, why has there never been any evidence of "innumerable transitional forms" to prove his Theory? There isn't any evidence, and there never will be...

Are you "leadership material?" More importantly, do others perceive you to be? Sylvia Ann Hewlett, a noted expert on workplace power and influence, shows you how to identify and embody the Executive Presence (EP) that you need to succeed. You can have the experience and qualifications of a leader, but without executive presence, you won't advance. EP is an amalgam of qualities that true leaders exude, a presence that telegraphs you're in charge or deserve to be. Articulating those qualities isn't easy, however. Based on a nationwide survey of college graduates working across a range of sectors and occupations, Sylvia Hewlett and the Center for Talent Innovation discovered that EP is a dynamic, cohesive mix of appearance, communication, and gravitas. While these elements are not equal, to have true EP, you must know how to use all of them to your advantage. Filled with eye-opening insights, analysis, and practical advice for both men and women, mixed with illustrative examples from executives learning to use the EP, Executive Presence will help you make the leap from working like an executive to feeling like an executive.

When issues of diversity and race arise in higher education scholarship and practice, the focus is generally on Students of Color. That being said, if there are People of Color being marginalized on college campuses, there is a structural mechanism facilitating the marginalization. This monograph explores the relevance of Whiteness to the field of Higher Education. While Whiteness as a racial discourse is continually changing and defies classification, it is both real in terms of its impacts on the campus racial dynamics. Highlighting many of the contours of Whiteness in higher education, this volume explores the influence of Whiteness on interpersonal interactions, campus climate, culture, ecology, policy, and scholarship. Additionally, it explores what can be done—both individually and institutionally—to address the problem of Whiteness in higher education. Ultimately, this monograph is offered from the perspective that racial issues concern everyone, and this engages the possibility of both People of Color destabilizing Whiteness and White people becoming racial justice allies within the context of higher education institutions. This is the sixth issue of the 42nd volume of the Jossey-Bass series ASHE Higher Education Report. Each monograph is the definitive analysis of a tough higher education issue, based on thorough research of pertinent literature and institutional experiences. Topics are identified by a national survey. Noted practitioners and scholars are then commissioned to write the reports, with experts providing critical reviews of each manuscript before publication.

An Empath's Guide to Manifestation If you are like me, you are very familiar with the Law of Attraction from many books on the market. For a long time, I was trying manifestation techniques in those books but not reaching the success that most people have from using these methods. Upon working with a fellow healer and lightworker, I discovered that I am an empath. Empaths are highly sensitive people who can absorb just about anything, including bad energy from others. Many of my manifestations were being blocked because I didn't realize that my energetic sensitivity allowed things to interfere with my attracting power. My book, The Missing Link, is specifically aimed at those readers like me who are empaths. It approaches the manifestation process using a few unconventional methods rarely discussed in other Law of Attraction books. The Missing Link focuses primarily on the "Believe and Receive" portion of the manifestation process. When practicing the Law of Attraction, many of us empaths start to break down at the "Believe and Receive" part of manifestation due to our self-doubt and sensitivity issues. Are you an empath or some other type of highly sensitive person that keeps having trouble with manifesting the things you want? This short-read eBook shares techniques that allow us to be strong through the "Believe and Receive" stage of Law of Attraction to become more successful at manifesting our desires. their hearts back toward them. Lyle-Jones—an educator in schools and correctional settings—also shares what goes wrong when children don't have fathers, exploring the hurt and pain of men who grew up without them. Whether you're a father, son or another member of the family, you'll understand why fathers are the missing link in helping boys become men who love, trust, and honor God in The Father Factor. There appears to be a distinct lack of God's power and presence in the lives of most Christians and their churches. Many are not experiencing the joy and peace that God offers to His children. The normal Christian life is meant to be one that expresses daily the reality of the life of Jesus Christ in and through followers of Christ - lives exhibiting His power and presence in all circumstances. This book examines a Missing Link in the lives of many Christians that will explain the lack of power and victory. The reader will be challenged to search Scripture and his or her own life and relationship with God to understand the important teachings of this book. Henry Hall Powell, Jr. is an ordained Christian minister and has served as an expository preacher and teacher since 1974. The Missing Link is Mr. Powell's first book and reflects his ongoing commitment to provide insight into the practical application of biblical truths for those who seek true spirituality. Mr. Powell received an A.B. Degree in Philosophy and Religion from Guilford College, attended Columbia Graduate School of Bible and Theology, and earned a M.B.A. degree from Winthrop University. He lives with his wife Melinda in Kure Beach, North Carolina and they have three married daughters and eight grandchildren.

This book discusses the controversy surrounding evolutionary theory and religious thought. Debates have mostly centered on the origin of species, but this book focuses on the origins of consciousness, thought, and the self while also considering the relationship between God and science.

Many churches, mostly traditional ones, are dying: some shut down, others downsize. This situation is happening mostly in the rich, developed nations, and places where our traditional churches were deeply rooted. In Europe, for example, many of these churches are bought and converted into others like casinos and movie theatres. Why? Because these churches are missing the link that would connect them to the power of God which will help them grow from grace to grace. Instead, they depend on their own power resulting in stagnation, until they vanish. Charismatic churches that take things for granted, and do not have this link will suffer same. So get linked to the power of God.

humanity and God, so it is between the school and the society. All these spaces are not ordinarily navigable. They are a form of vacuum, pit or ditch. They are a mystery till date and have been like that for ages. They are difficult to explain. The book, 'the missing link', is the actual link that is missing between the school and the society. Now that the link is here, it is an answer to one of the mysteries of our life. Useful information or tools that the student needs to acquire to escape the ditch of life is provided in the book.
