There is a key to finding the deepest fundamental or unifying point of all our astrology systems, which is precisely what this book and its title 'The Missing Link in Astrology' is all about. Step by step I will show you how this missing link is actually based on the fifth harmonic, brought to life by the precession of the equinoxes and, combined with the twelfth harmonic, forming the basis or unifying point of all astrology systems. There is a previously unrecognized but especially strong connection here between Western and Chinese astrology. This oriental art with its twelve animal Year signs happens to incorporate precisely the same twelfth harmonic energy as we use in our own Western—and Eastern— twelve zodiac signs. The main difference is that oriental astrologers of old recognized the vital importance, and hence the usage and inclusion in their oriental science, of the all-important and amazingly creative fifth harmonic, or to put it another way 'The spark of divinity'.

From two bestselling authors—the first in a deliciously bold new series that takes readers to the most dangerous edge of desire . . . Nikolai: I have been a contract killer since I was a boy. For years I savored the fear caused by my name, the trembling at the sight of my tattoos. The stars on my knees, the marks on my fingers, the dagger in my neck, all spoke of danger. If you saw my eyes, it was the last vision you'd have. I have ever been the hunter, never the prey. With her, I am the mark and I am ready to lie down and let her capture me. Opening my small, scarred heart to her brings out my enemies. I will carry out one last hit, but if they hurt her, I will bring the world down around their ears.

Daisy: I've been sheltered from the outside world all my life. Home-schooled and farm-raised, I'm so naive that my best friend calls me Pollyanna. I like to believe the best about people. Nikolai is part of this new life, and he's terrifying to me. Not because his eyes are cold or my friend warns me away from him, but because he's the only man who has ever seen the real me beneath the awkwardness. With him, my heart is at risk . . . and also, my life.

But on the vast ice plains of Abeth, those traits lead children to burn bright and die young, and the discipline of the priests is harsh. Any child who shows signs of the old races is cast into the Pit of the Missing, never to be seen again. Yaz is only sixteen, but she feels a burgeoning gift and she knows the next gathering will be her last--the priests see everything, and her aberrance will not be tolerated. But then she is spared and her brother is identified as one of the broken and cast down into the pit. Stunned, awash with guilt and grief, she flings herself in after him. She expects to find death. Instead she finds a sprawling, secret civilization, where survival is even less assured than on the ice plains. And she soon realizes that this underground empire revolves around a great truth--and an even greater evil--that puts all of Abeth in danger.
