At seventy-three years young, #1 New York Times bestselling author and health guru Suzanne Somers has established herself as a leading voice on antiaging. With A New Way to Age, she “is at the forefront again, bringing seminal information to people, written in a way that all can understand” (Ray Kurzweil, author of How to Create a Mind) with this revolutionary philosophy for a longer and better-quality life that will make you feel like you’ve just had the best checkup ever. There is a new way to age. I’m doing it and it’s the best decision I’ve ever made. I love this stage of my life: I have ‘juice,’ joy, wisdom, and perspective; I have energy, vitality, clearheadedness, and strong bones. Most of us are far too comfortable with the present paradigm of aging, which normalizes pills, nursing homes, and “the big three”: heart disease, cancer, and Alzheimer’s disease. But you don’t have to accept this fate. Now there’s a new way to grow older—with vibrancy, freedom, confidence, and a rockin’ libido. This health bible from Suzanne Somers will explain how to stop aging like your parents and embrace cutting-edge techniques such as: balancing nutritional and mineral deficiencies; detoxifying your gut for weight loss; pain management with non-THC cannabis instead of harmful opioids; and much more. Aging well is mainly about the choices you make on a daily basis. It can be a fantastic process if you approach it wisely. After a lifetime of research, Suzanne came to a simple conclusion: what you lose in the aging process must be replaced with natural alternatives. In order to thrive you have to rid your body of chemicals and toxins. Start aging the new way today by joining Suzanne and her trailblazing doctors as they all but unearth the fountain of youth.

Part family drama, part contemporary thriller, Rule of Threes is a middle grade story about what happens when "perfect" is out of your control. An interior design enthusiast, twelve-year-old Maggie Owens is accustomed to living her life according to her own precise plans. But when she learns about Tony, a mysterious half-brother her own age who needs a place to stay, any semblance of a plan is shattered. Tony's mom struggles with an addiction to opioids, and now she's called upon Maggie's dad—who is also Tony's dad—to take him in. On top of everything, Maggie must also come to terms with the Alzheimer's afflicting her beloved grandmother. While Maggie can strive for—and even succeed in—a picture perfect design, when it comes to family, there is no such thing as perfection. To work through the sudden struggles rocking her world, Maggie must learn the importance of having an open heart. • A heart-wrenching, authentic, and darkly funny coming-of-age story • Addresses hard-hitting topics—such as divorce and substance abuse—with care and honesty • From Marcy Campbell, author of Adrian Simcox Does NOT Have a Horse Merci Suárez Changes Gears meets The Thing About Jellyfish in this compulsively readable novel. • Perfect for ages 10 and up • Appeals to those interested in stories about friendship and non-traditional families • Great for readers who love a bold and self-aware protagonist

In her most personal and inspiring book yet, New York Times bestselling author Suzanne Somers shows readers how to shape a healthy, lasting relationship through the lens of her fifty-year love affair with her husband, Alan Hamel. For the first time, Suzanne will expose the inner workings of her marriage: a winning combination of love, business, and family. Starting from the very beginning, when a big-city guy from Toronto met a small-town girl from San Bruno, California, readers will get a behind-the-scenes perspective on Suzanne's groundbreaking success as a TV star and Las Vegas diva, multiple-bestselling author, and successful entrepreneur and businesswoman, along with her more personal life as a mother, partner, and ultimately self-fulfilled woman. Through fame, fortune, sickness and blended families, Suzanne and Alan have kept the vitality of their marriage alive— together 24/7 (and haven't spent a night apart in 37 years), and combining business savvy in their constantly evolving relationship. Now, Suzanne reveals hard-won advice on how to rely on another person without sacrificing individual strengths. In this mixture of love story, memoir, and practical guide, readers, too, will discover how to forge and maintain a true partnership that's built to last.

A fun and lively look at the mathematical ideas concealed in video games Did you know that every time you pick up the controller to your PlayStation or Xbox, you are entering a game world steeped in mathematics? Power-Up reveals the hidden mathematics in many of today's most popular video games and explains why mathematical learning doesn't just happen in the classroom or from books—you're doing it without even realizing it when you play games on your cell phone. In this lively and entertaining book, Matthew Lane discusses how gamers are engaging with the traveling salesman problem when they play Assassin's Creed, why it is mathematically impossible for Mario to jump through the Mushroom Kingdom in Super Mario Bros., and how The Sims teaches us the mathematical costs of maintaining relationships. He looks at mathematical pursuit problems in classic games like Missile Command and Ms. Pac-Man, and how each time you play Tetris, you're grappling with one of the most famous unsolved problems in all of mathematics and computer science. Along the way, Lane discusses why Family Feud and Pictionary make for ho-hum video games, how realism in video games (or the lack of it) influences learning, what video games can teach us about the mathematics of voting, the mathematics of designing video games, and much more. Power-Up shows how the world of video games is an unexpectedly rich medium for learning about the beautiful mathematical ideas that touch all aspects of our lives—including our virtual ones.

The no-holds-barred complete story of the #1 hit '70s sitcom. Find out what really happened both behind and in front of the cameras. Come and Knock on Our Door delivers all the titillation and travails of the breakthrough coed roommate farce that launched John Ritter, Joyce DeWitt, and Suzanne Somers to stardom in 1977. On-screen, the trio's dilemmas were always just zany misunderstandings riddled with pratfalls and double entendres and resolved with hugs and kisses. But behind the scenes, the real-life tensions of fame and controversy plus personal, financial, and creative conflicts threatened to end the love and laughter. With interviews from over sixty actors, producers, directors, and crew members, Chris Mann uncovers the good, the bad, and the ugly that occurred on the set-- from the fun and friendships to the feuding and falling-outs. For the first time ever, John Ritter and Joyce DeWitt break their silence about the eroding relations and bitter breakup with their onetime pal and original costar, Suzanne Somers and some of the show's top execs tell their sides of the story behind her big money demands and missed work, the public outcry, and her eventual firing. Joyce DeWitt also reveals her secret struggles with the show's producers and explains why she turned her back on Hollywood when John Ritter spun off alone in Three's a Crowd-- and what she's been doing ever since. Jenilee Harrison tells what it was like to replace Suzanne Somers during the contract dispute. Norman Fell, Don Knotts, Richard Kline, and Ann Wedgeworth disclose the ups and downs of TV's looniest landlords and tenants. And the late Audra Lindley, in her final interview, describes what she looks for in a muu-muu. So Come and Knock on Our Door, We've Been Waiting for You.

With eye-opening statistics, original data, and vivid portraits of people who live alone, renowned sociologist Eric Klinenberg upends conventional wisdom to deliver the definitive take on how the rise of going solo is transforming the American experience. Klinenberg shows that most single dwellers—whether in their twenties or eighties—are deeply engaged in social and civic life. There's even evidence that people who live alone enjoy better mental health and have more environmentally sustainable lifestyles. Drawing on more than three hundred in-depth interviews, Klinenberg presents a revelatory examination of the most significant demographic shift since the baby boom and offers surprising insights on the benefits of this epochal change.

Two billionaire rivals and the woman who stands between them... Cara Ross is the manager of a non-profit ranch specializing in horse rescues. When she attends a fancy New York fundraiser, she meets the sexy James Lebray and the handsome Deacon Frost. Both men are interested in becoming donors, so Cara invites them to the ranch for a tour, and things only heat up from there. But Cara's self-doubt haunts her. She's not rich, not famous, and she certainly can't fit into any of those size-zero dresses that the New York models wear. So why would two scorching-hot billionaires be interested in a plus-sized girl more comfortable wearing jeans and rescuing horses? And why does she suddenly feel like a prize they're battling each other to win—and she's cheering for them both? Deacon Frost has been wildly successful since leaving the military and starting his company years ago. These days, the biggest thorn in his side is billionaire James Lebray, a competitor who's as driven to win as he is handsome. James Lebray is a man who smiles too much and looks too good doing it—and he's a problem. Not only is James locked in a bidding war with Deacon for a company they each want for very different reasons, but he's also moving in on the fascinating Cara Ross. And Deacon isn't going to let her go without a fight. James always plays to win. Cara's a pretty puzzle that immediately fascinates him, but his biggest rival, Deacon Frost, is clearly interested in the curvy woman too. Normally, James would be confident in his chances to win Cara's heart, but he's always had a thing for Deacon. The man is drop-dead gorgeous, and that alpha military bearing of his has sparked many a fantasy. Clearly, the only thing a sane man can do is kiss the guy and see what happens. He intends to win both Cara and Deacon. But emotions run hot and competition runs deep, threatening any chance the three of them have at happiness. Can enemies truly become lovers? Cara might be the one who bound them together, but will she be the thing that forever drives them apart? Reader note: contains MMF menage, BBW and billionaires, hot romance elements, enemies to lovers, male male love, and a happily ever after

The Life of Metaphors is based upon real-life things we see every day. This is a new style of reading material that no one has ever read before, which will open your mind to metaphors as a new language. In one of my chapters, I talk about money and how it can be a force of evil. For example, some people say money isn't everything, but people will do anything to get it. I also talk about sports and how relevant they are to the players. Some of my favorite sports players listed as Tom Brady, Peyton

The play focuses on the lives of three sisters, Olga, Masha, and Irina, young women of the Russian gentry who try to fill their days in order to construct a life that feels meaningful while surrounded by an array of military men, servants, husbands, suitors, and lovers, all of whom constitute a distractions from the passage of time and from the sisters' desire to return to their beloved Moscow.

Prologue When we think of polarity, most think of a magnet, or a triple A battery, filled with small traces of radiation or energy. In fact, every star has atomic energy that love created in the Big Bang with that infamous BBBBBOOM!!! When we think of polarity, we begin to unravel diligent truths, from the truest God, much different than what we ever thought. We also begin to think of God much differently than traditionally taught in the bible. Tru Hu Blu, God of unconditional Love, is living truly hidden inside your body. Inside your altar, in your trinity temple, within your soul of unconsciousness, you will find God. Your unconscious mind records everything. You also have almighty power in the holy Spirit, which is your subconscious mind, and your angel of the future. Your spirit of guidance, in the altar ego to guide you home. When we listen to this Almighty sleeping giant, we find success and abundance in all things. Nothing is off limits to you, when you literally know True God, the grand architect of the Universe. The king and queen of all crowns is found. Life for the better begins to change, and everything becomes greater with each new day. When we know the truth, we begin to appreciate life enough to make our lives more fulfilling. Blind faith becomes absolute Faith, and the emptiness we once felt inside, becomes whole. Acceptance of all things good or bad, teaches us the stories, that we all need to grow, and blossom. This happens to anyone who dares to seek the real truth, and accept it when found. The real truth is already programmed inside you. To find it, you must forget everything you think you know with a closed mind, and open your mind to all possibilities. All knowing properties are in there too! When we begin to accept the truth, our purpose for living is found. We begin picking up the holy cross of principles, we find the real example of the royal crown. It is then that we realize, that a real living God is truly found, and you are found in this process. The rewards of abundant success in all things, follows. When you accept the whole truth, when it is found, you will realize that we have all been lied to. But why? There must be a good reason. Everyone deserves a chance, and love deserves the return in favor. With that, the awakening begins, as the truth sets us all free, in the rise of humanity's awakening. Spiritual resurrection will lead to angels on Earth, without the fire and brimstone. Love casts no judgement, just acceptance, and appreciation. As we climb to the top of the pyramid, we learn diligence is very important to find True God. The truth is found with our diligence as we learn the hidden secrets, that lead to all great human accomplishments. We also learn that man has no power without Hu. When we look back at a not too distant past, we remember cartoons as kids. With the devil on one shoulder and an angel on the other. Do you remember? Thus began the truth in the battle of the ego and the altar ego for control of the unconscious mind, for control of your consciousness. Your body is The vessel. Which one controls you like a robot? The battle of the mind, is the spiritual warfare for your soul. As kids, we probably we never truly understood the hidden light behind it. It was meant for the future, in a sign from a seed planted by True God, set up for this very moment in time. Knowing these secrets, will open your eyes! The spell will be broken, and you will awaken your spirit. The genie is free Aladdin! What will you wish for? The universe of opportunities is suddenly opened up to you! You will awaken to see the True Devil in possession of all the sleepwalkers, roaming the darkness of earth today. We were all once, one of them. Your spirit will resurrect in fulfillment of your unique mission, through True God, with the pact of True Angels. In your private walk on cloud 9 with God. It is then that you are able to understand your one of a kind purpose for life, and understand your personal meaning for living. In that meaning, your desires through purpose is found with the fulfillment of true happiness. This is part of True God's infinite evolutionary process, found by seeking the light, in your unique journey with the spirit, walking in darkness, on the other side of the mirror. Today, most of society is in a trance, they are schlepping like zombies wandering through darkness, convinced they are sheep, with a ten billion dollar computer inside their heads, they aren't even allowed to use, to save themselves. Darkness never leads darkness, the black sheep are lost! Let's count sheep. What will happen when the hypnotic spell of the world is broken? Herein, lies the secret of all human advancement, that will change you life forever. When you learn amazing principles of truth found in your spirit of light, the amazing genie hidden in the lamp is resurrected to serve you well. It's happiness serves you best, it is finally free! Your body is the lamp, and your genie is inside, waiting for your spark. The spark from the dragon preserver, ignites your eternal flame. The truth, will set your genie free! When you learn the principles of spiritual resurrection, in the image of True God's mirror of (E3)reflection, you will become born again. You will become reborn with a death to your old self. More importantly, you will become freed finally! Amen. Suddenly, you'll begin to awake each day with a new vitality you have never known before, your enthusiasm will increase, your vigor will rise, and your desire to know the truth, will overcome every fear you once knew at sunrise. Happiness will be yours, guaranteed. In finding your spirit, you are on your way to becoming a real angel. You will realize the truth, which becomes you, on earth, as you are meant, in Heaven. There's power in the principality of Seven twice. 7-up. Humanity has been lied to about nearly everything including God, from past dictators. But Why? In the Universal law of polarity, we begin the journey of truth, when the words begin to unravel, from the hidden light. Words, have a spirit of light, or a spirit of darkness. Each word ever created, has a meaning behind it, and all meanings are possessed spirits. Therefore, all words have spirits, and all spirits are found withering in darkness like lost sheep, or found like a diamond in the brilliance of true light with Lucy. With the separation of words into two piles of lightness or darkness, we begin to awaken to the real truth. Categorizing every word into light or darkness, will help the messianic congregation of the Almighty, find True God. Most importantly, you will find yourself. We are the Church of Hidden Light. "We are the world. We are the children." - Michael Jackson. It's time to make the world a better place, let's start sharing knowledge. We are the church of the future. Religion is the reminder of darkness, missing its true light. Carefully dissecting every word of human communication into light or darkness, we begin to find truths about all things, in the only living God that exists. Trust the flame. One True God, tells a completely different story, in the truth about life, and the reason for our existence. The polar bear will always keep you warm. Our love burns deep, while hell is freezing. She's cold as ice, she's willing to sacrifice our love. In our quest, we will finally realize the truth in the battle of religion vs. spirit. Money is not the root of all evil, religion is. Knowledge is a principle of light, found through diligence, and knowledge is the value of money in the modern world. In the future, no nation, or group of men control its power. Compensation returns to God we trust, the infinite power, as the result. The human with the most knowledge in the world, is the human who is the most respected. Money without knowledge is not respected. Empty money always withers away, like a wo/man in an empty suit. In God we trust. Compensation is the universal law leading to spiritual, and physical freedom. It governs karma.

Trust Bitcoin. The dragon has better karma than the serpent with no legs. When society finally realizes the dupe of the false past, they will find the real and true messiah in the making, who in spirit who wrote this book, the fire dragon. Our spirits are the light of God, and religion is the spirit of the darkness. Religion is worldly. The world is still in the dark ages, ready for the light in the moment of truth. Are you ready for it? When we understand the laws of the universe, we are able to see the science behind God's universal existence. In the mirror of God's reflection, we also begin to realize tricks from the real adversary. Hell is given to anyone who has given hell the thought of it. Hell only belongs to those who fear it, given it life, through thought. Thoughts are the basis of spirits creating matter in the physical world. The God fearing never see the devil coming, as the wolf dressed in the shepherd's clothing. In Universal Law of Attraction, the science of attracting hell is found. Welcome to karma  $101=2$ . When we acknowledge the real truth, found in the laws of the universe, we begin to realize, that we are born with a spirit, not a religion. Truth is either 100% or it cannot be counted as whole truth, or even truth at all. Any less than 100% is not true by entirety. Truth can be brutal just as love is tougher than any tough guy, and love conquers all, including the tough guy. Your uncorrupted spirit inside your temple, knows when it hears the truth. The light bulb goes off from the genie trying to gain your attention because your spirit knows the truth. Pay attention. Appreciate all the small things, and move slower so you cherish every moment. The truth makes sense, and your spirit is always sensing, it's your key to the universe, that becomes a multiverse of possibilities. The bible has many truths, but it also has many contradictions, when it is not read correctly to see the adversary's fingerprint is also in there as well, causing the contradictions. The devil is in the details. Many make excuses for it as God fearing souls, but True God is not the one to be feared. Have no fear, the universe is balanced, and you should be too. In the principle of truth, we begin to realize that love truly conquers all, and the truth, doesn't contradict itself. The truth provides huge principles to economic values, which equates to abundant rewards for all. The truth is found inside the wealthy who walk all around us. Most don't notice to appreciate the great leading examples that God leads, in the wealthy. The examples of righteousness are found in the principle actions of wealthy spirits. Fruits always prove truth about anyone. The truth always makes sense. A famous statement from Judge Judy is, "If it doesn't make sense it isn't true." She is true. Truth is an important principle, that your true spirit recognizes as light. In finding the truth, you will find success in all things, leading to true happiness. God always wants abundance for the faithful. Financial freedom buys happiness. It does not buy people who are true, and money does not buy successful relationships. It surely does not buy True God. In God we trust, we never trust in money. Knowledge is power. It all begins with the diligence of today, so keep reading, a better tomorrow is coming, and help is on the way.

How acting a little crazy and thinking outside of the box can get you the job you want Ever hear of a job candidate stretching out on the interviewer's floor to fill out an application? Or an applicant who sees nothing wrong with texting during the interview? Securing a job interview is a golden opportunity. The crazy-bad behavior described above will not net a job offer. Crazy Good Interviewing shows readers that crazy-good behavior, however, can make an applicant stand out favorably in a sea of mediocrity. Take the candidate who created a keynote presentation on his iPad to show what he could bring to the job or the one who created a DVD highlighting her abilities. Crazy Good Interviewing is a book geared toward those who are looking for work in this tough economy. Addresses how slightly eccentric behaviors can tip the scales in the applicant's favor Delves into how to access your three key strengths, how to use body language effectively, how to prepare a five-sentence history that builds a bridge to the interviewer, and more Turn just plain crazy into crazy-good, and land the job at your next interview. In early 1900, the paths of three British writers--Rudyard Kipling, Mary Kingsley and Arthur Conan Doyle--crossed in South Africa, during what has become known as Britain's last imperial war. Each of the three had pressing personal reasons to leave England behind, but they were also motivated by notions of duty, service, patriotism and, in Kipling's case, jingoism. Sarah LeFanu compellingly opens an unexplored chapter of these writers' lives, at a turning point for Britain and its imperial ambitions. Was the South African War, as Kipling claimed, a dress rehearsal for the Armageddon of World War One? Or did it instead foreshadow the anti-colonial guerrilla wars of the later twentieth century? Weaving a rich and varied narrative, LeFanu charts the writers' paths in the theatre of war, and explores how this crucial period shaped their cultural legacies, their shifting reputations, and their influence on colonial policy.

Love has been in existence since time immemorial and so are troubles and human imperfections. Love stories are not always about big heroism and great sacrifices. Rather, looking around us, love stories are about the imperfections that we carry. It's not about winning some big wars or going to the moon and stars but it's about small things, good or bad. A lawyer, Rann is a regular guy living his life, celebrating every occasion that he can and definitely careless when not arguing in courtrooms. A finance strategist for an MNC, Sunaina is a calm and mature girl, who likes to keep everyone around her happy but doesn't open up that easily. They bump into each other and it seems they would instantly fall in love. Well, that's actually not what happens. Love stories don't begin on day one, much like great wines they also take time to mature. Sunaina and Rann transition from strangers to friends. They chat, they talk, they argue, they disagree, but will they fall in love? After an early realization of his feelings for Sunaina, Rann is on a quest to woo her. But does Sunaina feel the same way or is there something in her past that Rann doesn't know about?... Will Rann be able to win the love of his life? ...
