

Viaggio In Italia

A fascinating exploration of the role new media technologies play in our experience of film.

"This is the first serious American book about my father . . . and a missing piece in the history of film for American film-lovers."--Isabella Rossellini

The Italian art cinema of the 1960s is known worldwide for its brilliance and vitality. Yet rarely has this cinema been considered in relation to the profound economic and cultural changes that transformed Italy during the sixties--described as the "economic miracle." Angelo Restivo argues for a completely new understanding of that cinema as a negotiation between a national aesthetic tradition of realism and a nascent postmodern image culture. Restivo studies numerous films of the period, focusing mainly on the works of Pier Paolo Pasolini and Michelangelo Antonioni. He finds that these auteurs' films reworked the neorealist aesthetic developed in the 1940s and 1950s, explored issues brought to the fore by the subsequent consumer boom, and presaged developments central to both critical theory and the visual arts in the 1980s and 1990s. Drawing on the theories of Lacan, Zizek, Benjamin, Foucault, Jameson, and Deleuze, he shines new light on such films as Pasolini's Accattone and Teorema, and Antonioni's Red Desert and Blow-Up. Restivo's model for understanding the relationship of the 1960s Italian art film to its cultural contexts also has implications that extend to the developing national cinemas of countries such as Brazil and Taiwan. The Cinema of Economic Miracles will interest scholars and students in all areas of film studies, especially those studying theories of the image, national cinema theory, and Italian cinema, and to those engaged in poststructuralist theory, philosophy, and comparative literature.

"Viaggio in Italia" è il resoconto di viaggio del Grand Tour che Johann Wolfgang von Goethe compì in Italia in circa due anni, a partire dal settembre del 1786. L'opera è considerata un vero e proprio caposaldo della storia del turismo perché da essa si manifesta un nuovo modo di viaggiare, un viaggio di tipo "antropologico". Da Goethe, infatti, il viaggio assume una forma in cui non si impara solo, come nei tipici Grand Tour, a conoscere la politica, la cultura, l'arte e le antichità dei paesi europei ma anche ad apprezzare i tratti più comuni delle popolazioni visitate, grazie a giri turistici, a frequentazioni degli ambienti locali, come mercati, chiese, e all'incontro con le persone. Traduzione del 1875 di Augusto Nomi di Cossilla.

This reference includes alphabetically arranged entries for more than 100 world writers from antiquity to 1945, who were significantly influenced by cultures other than their own. Each entry is written by an expert contributor and provides a brief biography, a discussion of multicultural themes and contexts, a summary of the author's critical reception, and primary and secondary bibliographies. The entries focus on the socio-historical circumstances that led to the author's exile, emigration, religious conversion, education, and travel or residence in a foreign country.

Il libro 'VIAGGIO IN ITALIA E NELLA LOGGIA DELLE PUGLIE' è un'anticipazione dei tre volumi riguardante i viaggi nella Loggia delle Puglie di prossima pubblicazione. La prima parte intitolata Viaggio in Italia, non è altro che una sintesi descrittiva di 13 particolari luoghi visitati dal nord al sud d'Italia. Località con singolari ambientazioni, dove le esperienze sensoriali, la cultura e la storia, si fondono in una sintesi emozionale unica. Luoghi che incuriosiscono per le illusioni ottiche o per i loro fenomeni acustici. La seconda parte intitolata Viaggio nella Loggia delle Puglie è una narrazione di 9 luoghi di Sant'Agata di Puglia dove si mettono in evidenza talune loro caratteristiche, probabilmente, anch'esse utili a creare più interesse e a dare maggior valore aggiunto al territorio. La pubblicazione continua con le descrizioni illustrate di alcuni monumenti e luoghi dell'antico borgo dell'Alta Puglia: Comune di Sant'Agata di Puglia 'marchi e riconoscimenti di qualità', Sant'Agata di Puglia e 'la visita illustre', Il Castello dei Castra Exempta, la Torre Quadra con l'adiacente Ingresso Monumentale e la sua Cinta Muraria Longobardo Normanna, mettendo particolarmente in risalto l'importante periodo storico che va dalla Comestabulia Normanna alla Castellania Sveva dei Castra Exempta

The book deals with the most striking landscapes and landforms of Italy. Attention is given to landform diversity and landscape evolution through time which has been controlled by very diverse geological conditions and dramatic climate changes that have characterized the Italian peninsula and islands since the end of the last glaciation. In addition, various examples of human impact on the landscape are presented. Landscape and Landforms of Italy contains more than thirty case studies of a multitude of Italian geographical landmarks. The topics and sites described in this book range from the Alpine glaciers to the Etna and Vesuvius volcanoes, taking into account the most representative fluvial, coastal, gravity-induced, karst and structural landscapes of the country. Chapters on the geomorphological landmarks of the cities of Rome and Venice are also included. The book provides the readers with the opportunity to explore the variety of Italian landscapes and landforms through informative texts illustrated with several color maps and photos. This book will be relevant to scientists, scholars and any readers interested in geology, physical geography, geomorphology, landscape tourism, geoheritage and environmental protection.

Heinrich Heine mi ha ispirato la più alta considerazione di un poeta... egli possiede quella divina malignità senza la quale non sono in grado di immaginarmi la perfezione artistica... Un giorno si dirà che io e Heine siamo stati di gran lunga i migliori artisti tedeschi. Friedrich Nietzsche »Dimensions. Journal of Architectural Knowledge« is an academic journal in, on and from the discipline of architecture, addressing the creation, constitution and transmission of architectural knowledge. It explores methods genuine to the discipline and architectural modes of interdisciplinary methodological adaptations. Processes, procedures and results of knowledge creation and practice are esteemed coequally, with particular attentiveness to the architectural design and epistemologies of aesthetic practice and research. Dimensions Issue 02/2021, edited by Katharina Voigt and Virginie Roy, investigates lived experience as source for the constitution of knowledge. This edition is concerned with the movements of exploration and the inner sensations of being moved by experience. Addressing situational experience allows bringing implicit dimensions of perception to attention, enabling a tangible understanding to emerge - for the actual encounter, as well as connected to memory and imagination. Practitioners and scholars from various disciplines open the realm for theoretical, applied and practice-related forms of research, whilst all contributions are aligned to enrich the discourse of architecture and its versatile dimensions.
